

16. The one-actor, "Quimby Comes Across", was presented on TV by Woodward students, directed by Mrs. McKinney. What a bunch of Barrymores and Bernhards we have!

17. St. Pat's day and report cards went out. Some of us were wearing green in the form of envy. We wonder if we can last out all six.

19. Vocational conferences today. 11th and 12th graders heard professionals talk about their fields of work. Always knew it would pay to be an upperclassman.

20. 'Tis Spring, when a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of Graduation Day. Rehearsals for Hi-capades are in full swing.

21. Defender's Hi-Y took the first-place laurels in the city-wide Hi-Y Tourney.

24. The Knoxville Choir sang in the auditorium this afternoon. Highlights of the program were excellent renditions of "Italian Street Song" and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

25. Messy munching going on here today. The Y-Teens potato chips arrived.

26. Photographers from The Post dropped around during the 5th Bell to take pictures of the Hi-Capades acts.

29. More than 250 school kids, including many Woodwardites, were at 9th St. Y for the Teen-age Religious Conclave.

31. The Parakees Ball tonight. Everything was going fine until the Parakees decided to sing.

APRIL

1. The day the chem lab blew up . . . April Fool! Last minute rehearsals for Hi-Capades. Jitters began to set in.

2-4. THE HI-CAPADES. Those beforehand jitters seemed to melt away when the kids went on stage, and the acts were great!

5. A lot of Woodward seniors were seen this afternoon at the U. C. placement examinations at Walnut Hills.

Central Alpha battled it out tonight for first-place honors in the Central YMCA Basketball Tourney. Afterwards they relaxed (?) by cutting a rug at their own Spring Fling.

10-14. Easter Holidays! Happily on their way to Washington for the Easter pilgrimage were several Woodwardites, including Ann VordenEsche, Joan Mueller, Elizabeth Tankersley, Imogene Jones, and Joanna Pelzer.

12. 9th-St. Hi-Y held its Hobo Hop tonight. We never knew that there were so many well-dressed bums at Woodward.
