

18. The school was treated to a dramatics assembly. Mr. Hansen and Miss Morris presented a musical, "Down in the Valley," Mr. Becker's group presented a comedy-murder mystery, "A Shot in the Dark," and Mr. Solomon's group presented the comedy, "The Exclusive Model."

19. The 9th St. Hi-Y Council gave a dance tonight just for fun. It was.

23. The Arbor Day trees arrived. We rushed straight home to plant them in that bare spot out in the yard.

24. I.B.E. Day crowded the halls with strange faces.

25-27. Hi-Y Youth and Government Program was held in Columbus this week. Woodward was proud to claim two of the three senators selected from the entire Hamilton County area: Sen. Granville Stallworth and Sen. Louis Jones. Congrats, senators!

MAY

1. May day. Would it be showing Communistic tendencies if we left a small basket of flowers on teacher's door?

The 9th St. Y had its Jabberwock tonight. It was loads of fun.

3. Central Alpha's May day Dance tonight.

5. The last regular issue of the Bulldog for this year. We'll miss the old 'dog, its news and its gossip.

Report cards again. Just one more to go.

10. Who's the most popular gal in school? Defender Hi-Y's Popularity Contest finally decided this long-debated question.

Central Alpha's Prom Queen Dance was held tonight. The candidates for Queen were finally announced. The girls were thrilled, but not so much that they didn't start "politicking" right away.

27. Sports Banquet. Woodward's athletes honored by the presence of Sid Gillman.

29. Orientation Day. Woodward was flooded by small fry of all sizes and sounds.

30. Memorial Day holiday.
