

To the graduating class of Nineteen hundred and forty-seven I extend my hearty congratulations for a job well done, and a hope for a happy and successful life. Conditions to-day reflect very clearly that the persons well trained, are the ones who are to be the leaders in the future of our Country.

To the graduates of the Vocational Commercial Department I offer my sincere good wishes. With your specialized training in the field of Business Education, I hope you realize how well equipped you are with ideals and skills, and will be ready to participate constructively in the affairs of your business, your City and your Country. I am confident that with your excellent preparation for your chosen work, you will be able to accept responsibilities as they are presented, and take your place in the Community as efficient, cooperative and independent Citizens.

MARGUERITE RYAN.
