

Last Will and Testament of the Class of '47

We, the Class of 1947, being of questionable mentality, but in good health and spirits, considering the certainty (we hope) of this being our last year in Woodward High School, do hereby declare, make, ordain, and publish this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I. To Dr. Peaslee, our Friend and Principal, we leave our undying gratitude and devotion.

ARTICLE II. To our Homeroom teachers, Miss Clark, Mr. Roebuck, Miss Abbuhl, and Miss Hanau, we bequeath pupils who will decide promptly on either Caps and Gowns or Formals, and who can fill out a card correctly the very first time.

ARTICLE III. To the Undergraduates we leave our insatiable thirst for knowledge, our indomitable will to work, and our infatigable spirit of accomplishment.

ARTICLE IV. To the Undergraduates we leave also the Lunchroom, its amiable staff, and its super-duper food (that's how reminiscing warps one's judgment). Also intestinal fortitude to survive the milk bottles, Woodward Hash, and third lunch. May your gripes be as loud as were ours.

ARTICLE V. To the Undergraduates we leave the task of filling the vacancies left by the following outstanding members of this illustrious class of '47:

Class Casanova.....	Bill Gessner
Class Jokers.....	Bob Brown and Jack Payne
Class Orator	John Tewart
