BASKETBALL

Although Woodward was on the losing end of the score in most of the basketball games played this season, the school has reason to be proud of its hard fighting team. The team displayed a fine spirit, and in sports it's the spirit of the game which counts since both teams can't be winners. Praise goes to McHargue, Schroedel, and Dieckman for the good account they gave of themselves. Lack of experience handicapped the rest of the team but what they lacked here they made up in enthusiasm. Woodward looks forward to a better season next year.
