

Now the year has come to an end, we say good-bye to old friends and face a new year. This year has been hard because of new rules, failed proficiency test, changed rules, illness, and Big Cut Backs. These cut backs will mean new challenges we have to face and overcome just like life itself.

As the yearbook advisor, I would like to thank the students that help with the yearbook to make it successful. I would like to apologize for not featuring everyone I could but I had to face new challenges myself and not enough time to complete the book as in the past. I hope the yearbook will be better next time.

To the Graduating class of 1995 I would like to say goodbye and I hope in your new adventures you will STRIVE FOR SUCCCESS and will accomplish many things to make Withrow Alumni and family proud.

As I close this chapter, typed my last word and draw my last layout I would like to say GOOD BYE MY FRIENDS and I hope our paths will cross again some day !!!!!

To my friends who will be with me again (Junior Class) thank you for helping to feel my youth as this body breaks down.
