

Four years gone by and nothing to do . . . except GRADUATE! On June 4, 1987 mile-wide smiles and eyes filled the stadium. Guest speakers gave inspiration and Dr. Brown expressed his pride. Valedictorian Venetta Johnson, Salutatorian Tim Sippel, and Senior Class President Sylvia Trice all spoke for their fellow graduates. Once the proceedings were over, all the graduates had said their final farewells to Withrow. Good luck, Class of '87.

Senior Class President Sylvia Trice makes her way to the podium to receive her diploma.

Dr. Brown, looking as serious as ever, proudly introduces the speakers.

"Hey girls! Look over there!"

Salutatorian Tim Sippel eulogizes the 1986-87 school year and reflects on his experiences at Withrow.