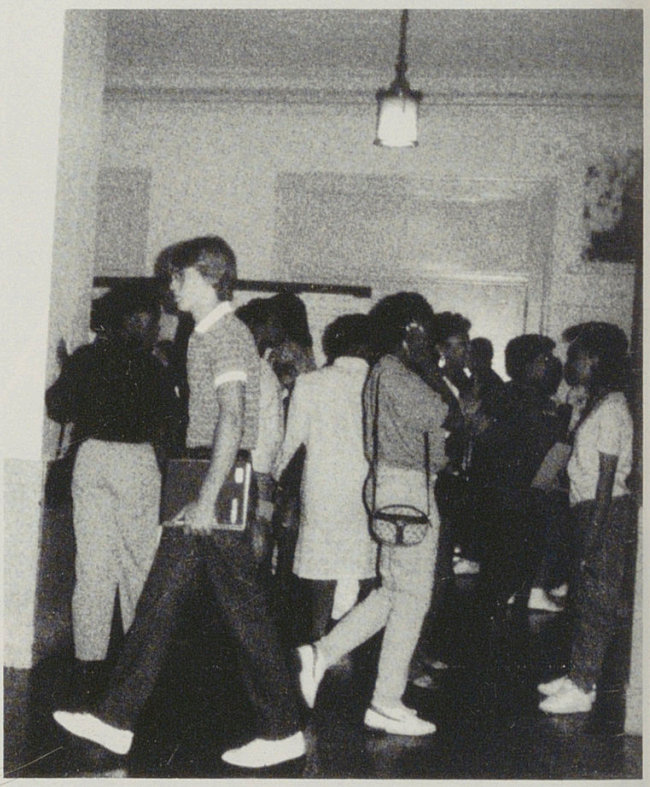
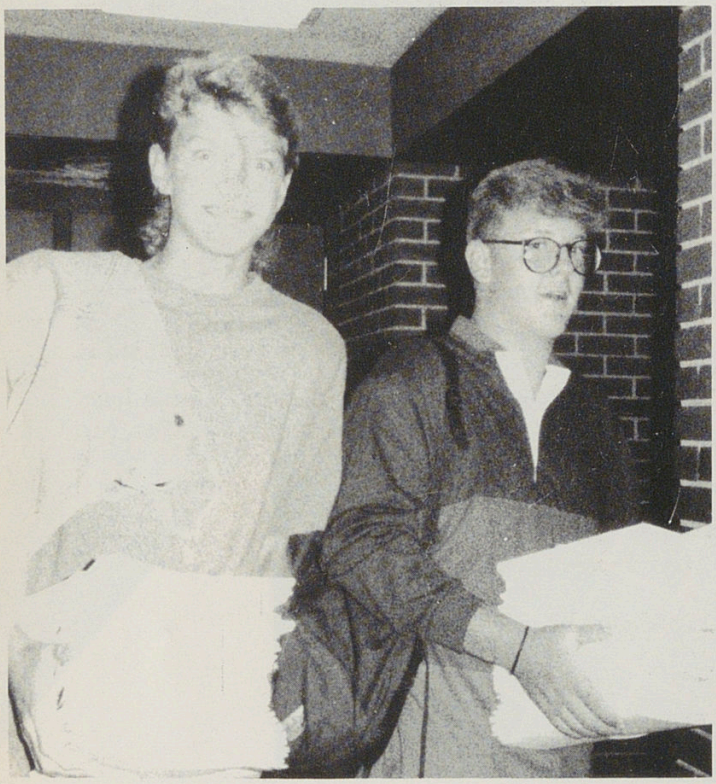
The First Day Of School

After three months of summertime slumber, Withrow's Tigers had to wake up at the crack of dawn, wander to school, and actually THINK! As impossible as it may sound, they seemed to pull it off with ease.

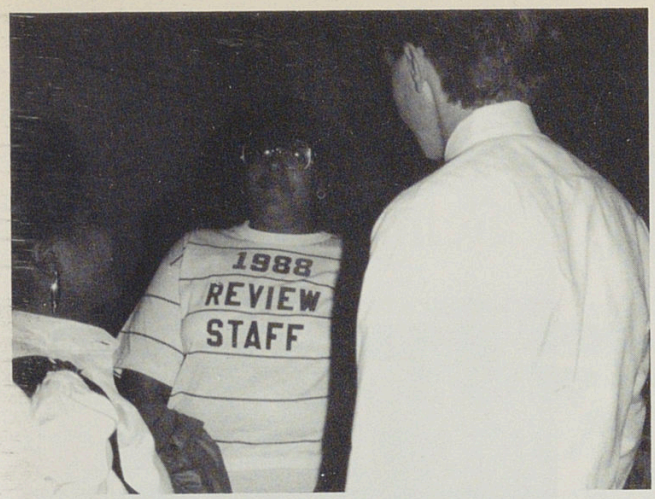


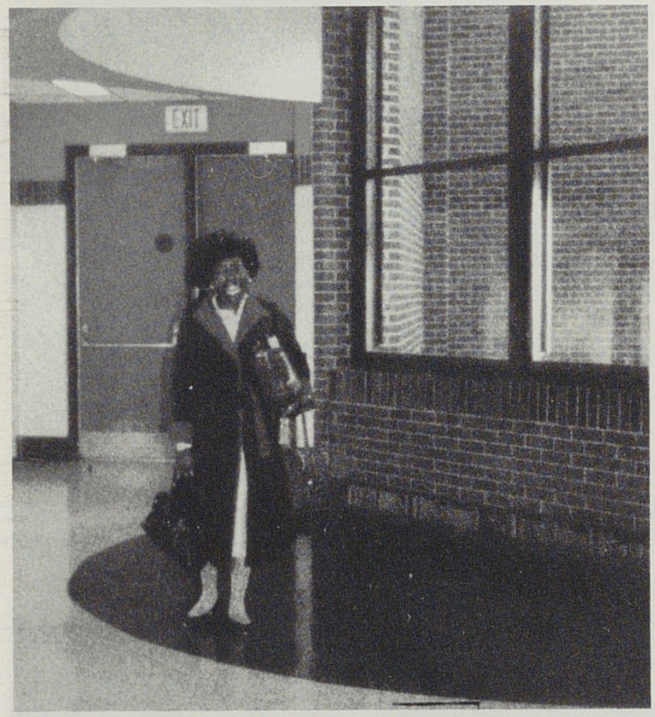


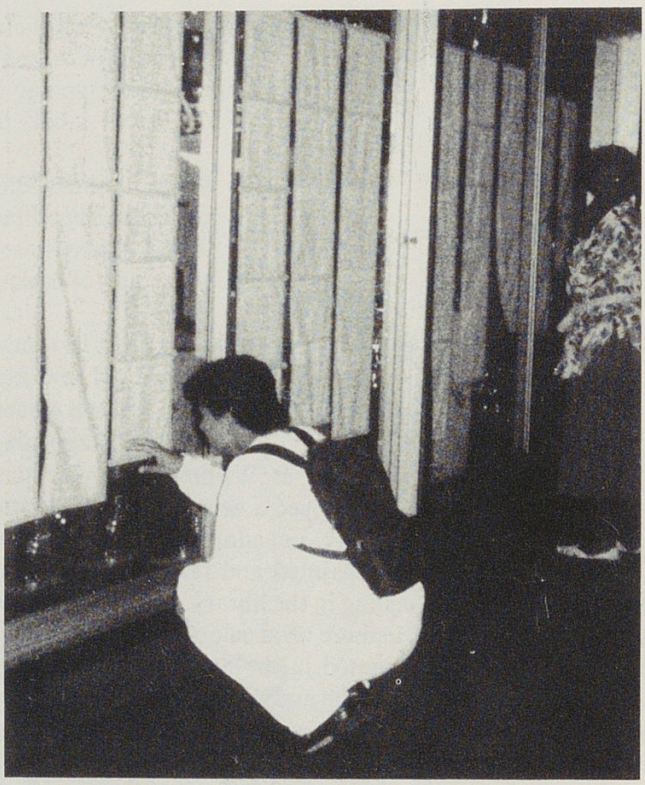
The students welcome each other back from their long summer.

Stephen Sippel and Andy Beck get right into the swing of things.

Lunch time stroll across the front of the campus.







Yearbook Staff member Rosellen Reed and Pamela Jones discuss the coming year with their chemistry teacher, Mr. Wehner.

Checking the roster for their homeroom.

Mrs. Dupree-Gibson ready for a new school year.

Here come the students ready for their first day.

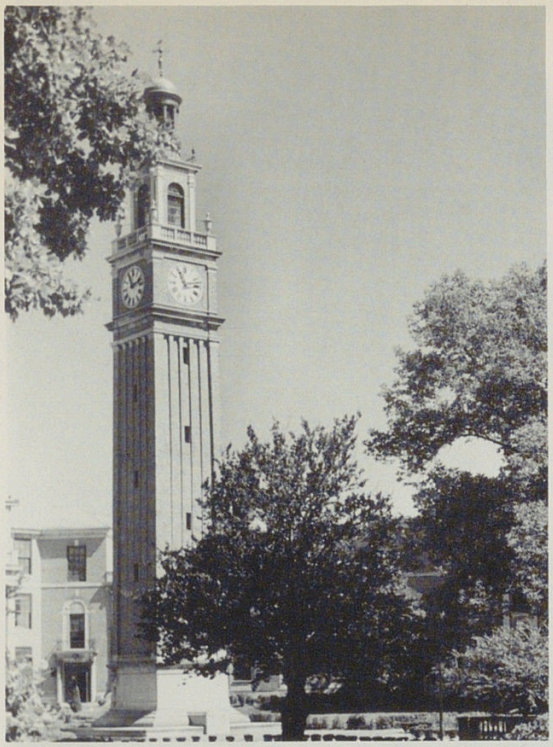
Something's Happening

Something's Happening at Withrow this year that developed a new attitude in the students, faculty, and administrators. This year the library was repainted and famous names were enhanced around the ceiling in the library. The school was also repainted all over in more vivid colors. A various display of pastel colors were painted in the hallways, lockers, and classrooms on each floor. The auditorium was painted green and pink. The famous Withrow tower was repainted along with the stadium and peaks on top of the school. The purpose was to create a more pleasant environment for learning.

Students line up to strut their stuff.

Dr Brown and Dwight Evans display administrator-student relation.

One . . . Two . . . One . . . Two. . . - The Band keeping the pace.



Gentle slopes and lofty tower
Radiant in the sun,
Arching ridge and shaded valley,
All our hearts have won.

Withrow's beauty, Withrow's splendor
Fill our hearts with pride
Love for you our Alma Mater
Ever will abide.

Friendships made in search of knowledge,
Cherished bonds and true,
Memories of golden hours
Hold us close to you.

As we venture from your portals
Aims held ever high
We'll turn to glimpse once more
The tower 'gainst the sky.

A view of the splendid tower.

Hard at work trying to make Withrow's library even more beautiful.

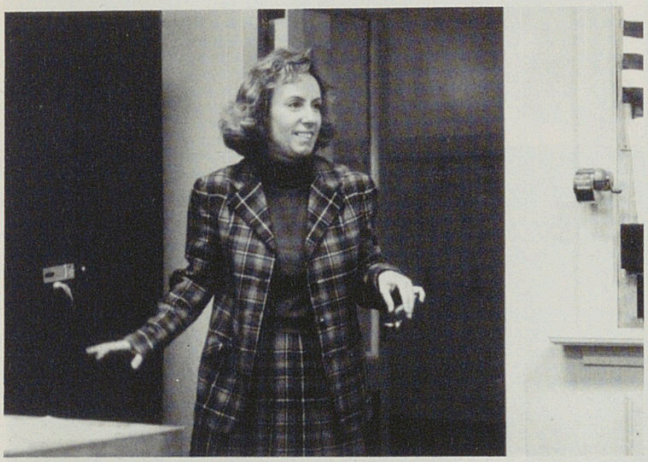
Our very talented drama club putting on "A Christmas Carol."

Something's Happening to the library! It's being redone for the 1987-88 school year.

English as a Second Language students like to socialize during class time too.

At Open House, parents and teachers take a break from talking about their child's school behavior.

The lunch room staff keeps the cafeteria in order.



Mrs. Spiller comes in happy, ready to teach English IB.

Lisa Dornbush and Rosellen Reed enjoy posing before class begins.

Withrow cheerleaders really know how to do it.

Mr. Temple shows us his Indian ancestral heritage.

Dr. Rice shows Withrow to a visitor, who seems satisfied.

1987 Prom

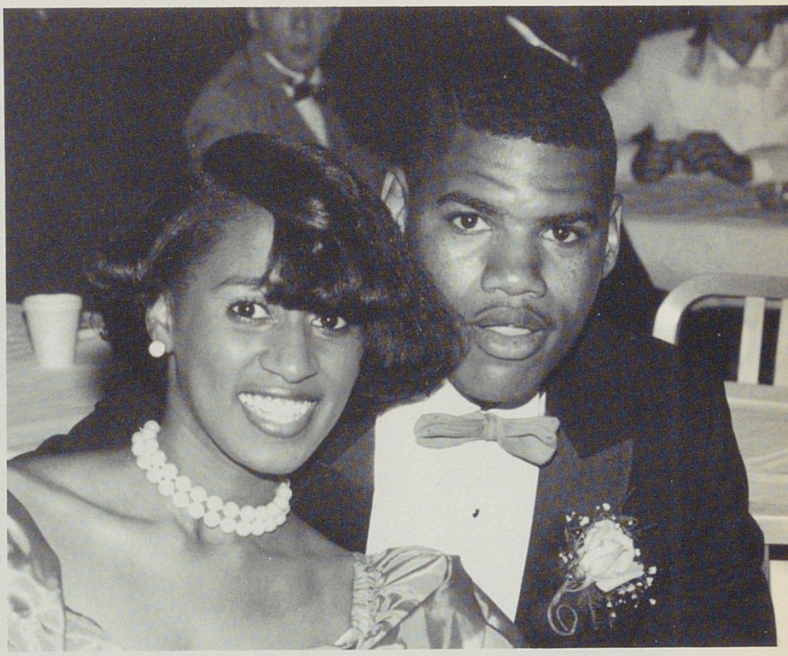
With the 1986-87 school year nearing its end, the Seniors were finally going to experience what they had waited so long for: not graduation . . . their SENIOR PROM! Organized by Sigma Gamma, the Prom took place on May 22, 1987 at Music Hall. Its theme was "If Only For One Night." Once the folks had danced for a while, the anxiously awaited announcements were made: The King: Robert Byrd, The Queen: Nichole Reed, The Prince: Damon George, and The Princess: Sheri Little. Once the crowns and tiaras were presented, the night continued in all its splendor.

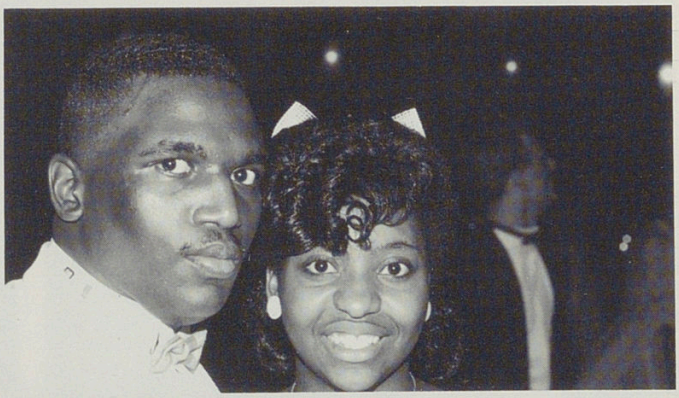
Queen Nichole Reed and King Robert Byrd look positively posh as they pose for a parcel of pictures.

The King's Crown and Queen's Tiara await their wearers.

Celeste Lee and "her date" sit and enjoy the view.

Princess Sheri Little and Prince Damon George are all decked out as they accept their royalty with class.





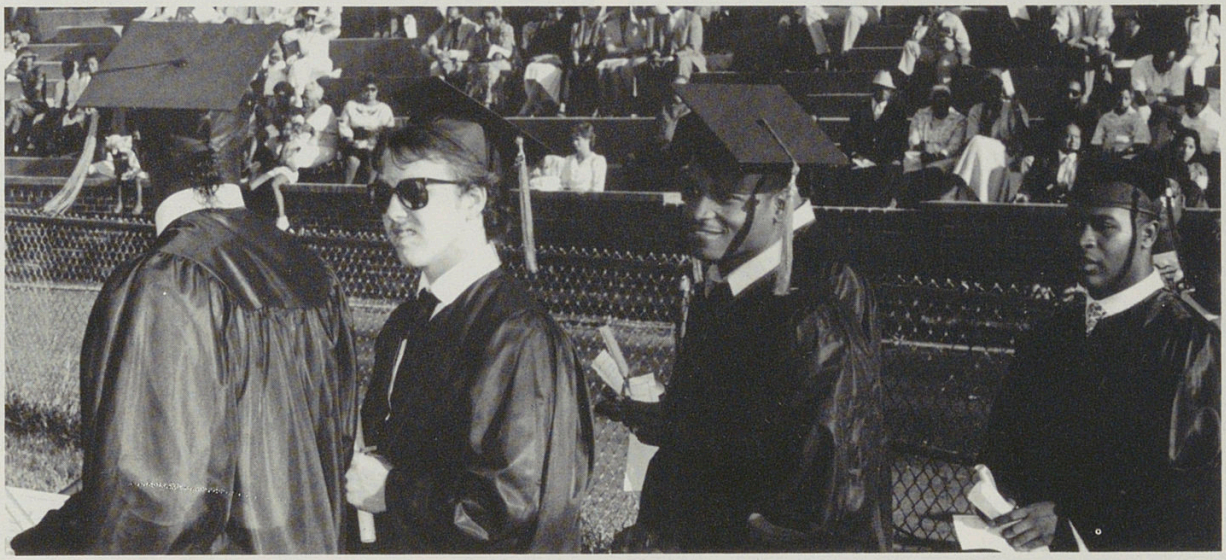
Tracey Stillwell and "her date" make an absolutely DARLING couple.

Prince Damon George and his "princess of the night," Pam Scott proudly present themselves.

Sigma Gamma President Tim Sippel announces 1987's Prom Royalty.

Mike Witham and Liana Miller get SERIOUS.

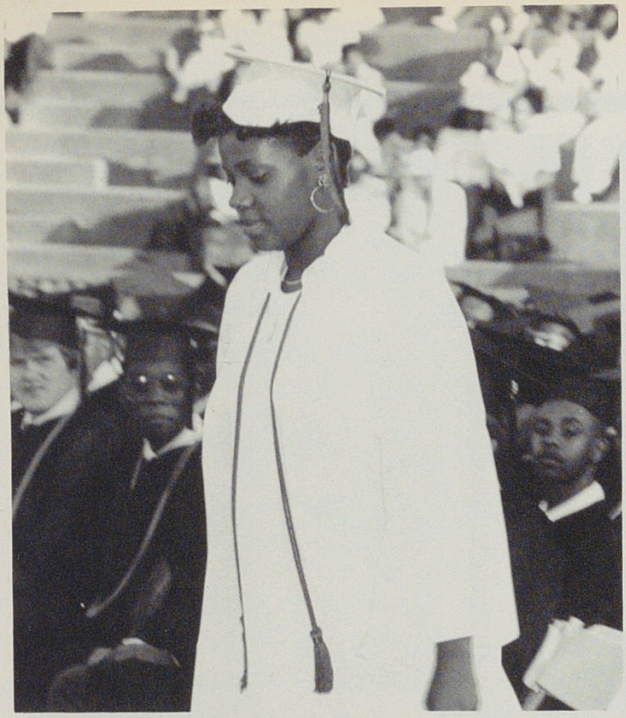
1987 Graduation

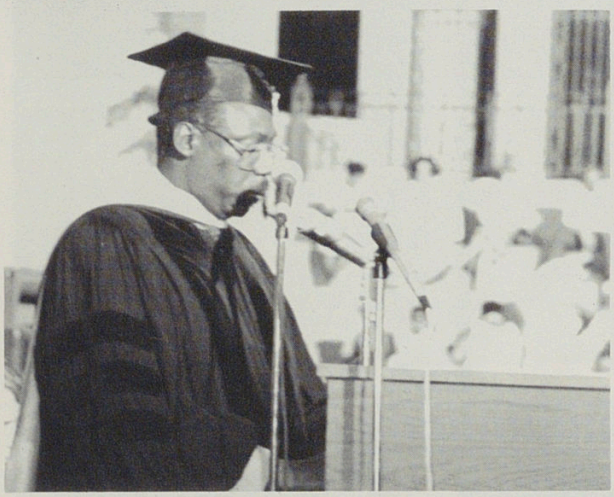


A string of "guy graduates" marches onto the field and to their seats.

Valedictorian Venetta Johnson talks of her past achievements and her future goals.

The top 20% girls can't wait to break loose.





Four years gone by and nothing to do . . . except GRADUATE! On June 4, 1987 mile-wide smiles and eyes filled the stadium. Guest speakers gave inspiration and Dr. Brown expressed his pride. Valedictorian Venetta Johnson, Saludatorian Tim Sippel, and Senior Class President Sylvia Trice all spoke for their fellow graduates. Once the proceedings were over, all the graduates had said their final farewells to Withrow. Good luck, Class of '87.

Senior Class President Sylvia Trice makes her way to the podium to receive her diploma.

Dr. Brown, looking as serious as ever, proudly introduces the speakers.

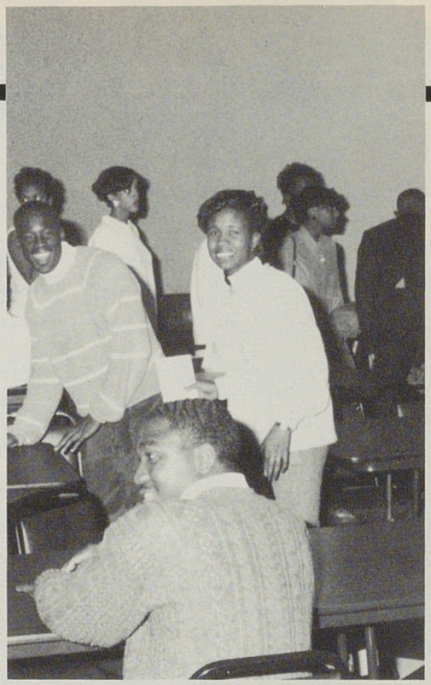
"Hey girls! Look over there!"

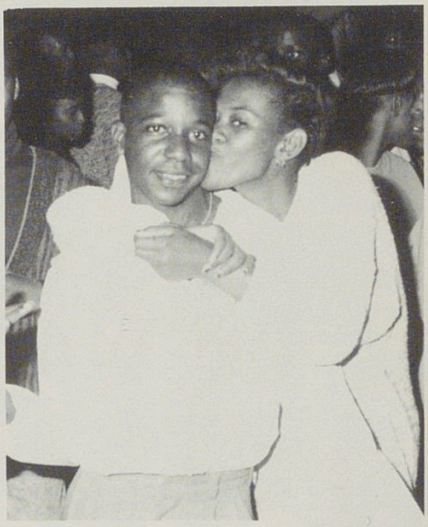
Saludatorian Tim Sippel eulogizes the 1986-87 school year and reflects on his experiences at Withrow.

Homecoming

"Withrow Tigers in the sky keeping Withrow's spirits high," was the theme of the 1987-88 Homecoming. Everyone was so excited to get out of their sixth bell for the pep-rally. During the Pep Rally the football team was introduced and the king and queen were announced. King, Jamill Hill and Queen, Pam Garces. The crowd roared and screamed to the sounds of the cheerleaders "Beat those Redskins, Tigers don't let them win!" At 6 o'clock the participants in the parade met at Peoples Junior High for the march to Withrow, the cheerleaders led.

After the parade, the game against the Redskins began at seven o'clock. The Tigers were victorious. After the football game everyone went to King's Hall for the dance where they had fun until one o'clock. The dance was successful and no one wanted to leave.





"Now everybody smile for the camera!"

"Why not Me?"

Jammin' 'til one!

King Jamil Hill and Queen Pam Garces after they were crowned.

First runners up - Randall Hudson and Marquita Frye.

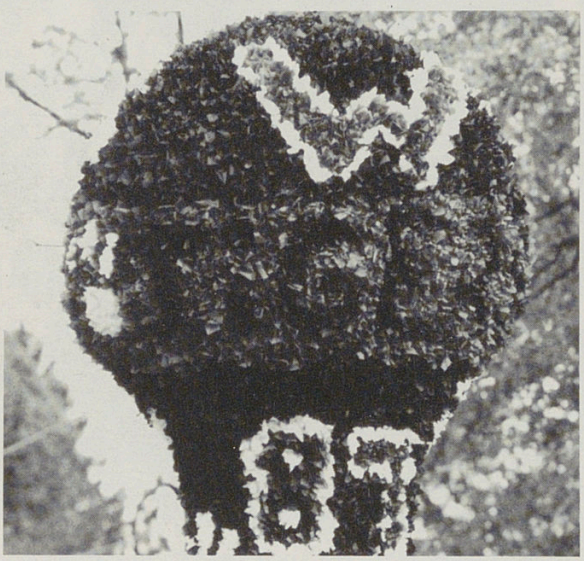
"What! OLD men trying to get in on the fun!"



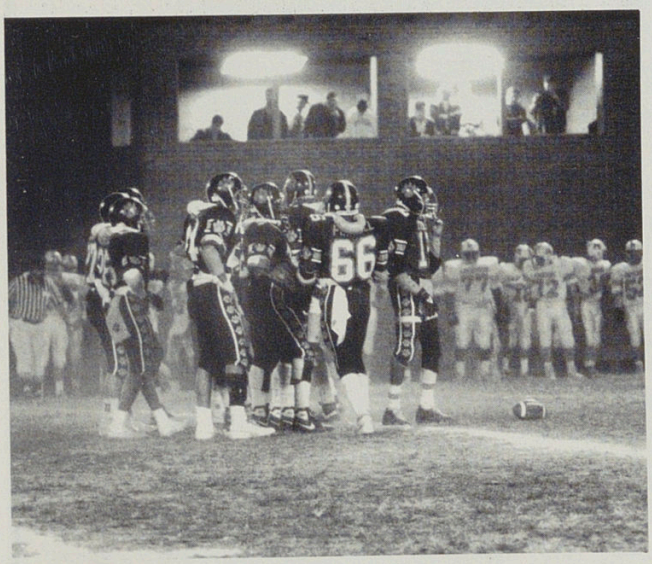
Showing the vivacious mixture of purple and yellow, the Q Club in full float.

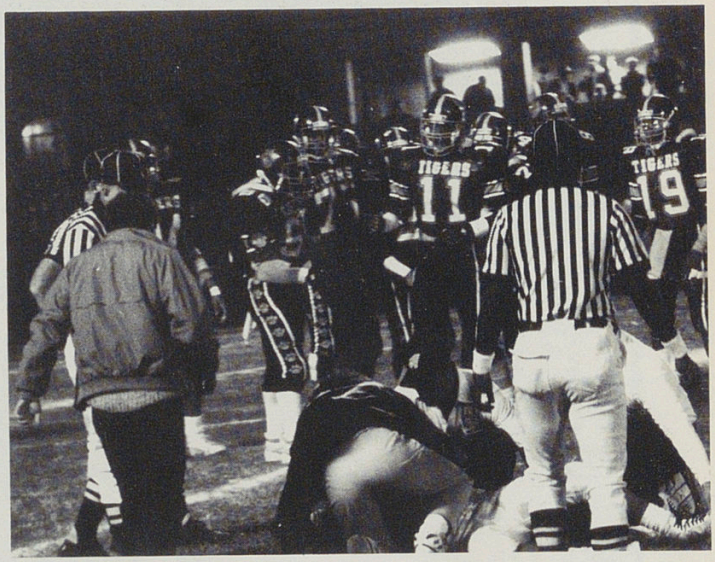
A view from the backside of the parade.

Showing to all that this is the Withrow High School Parade of 1987.

Withrow's Band and Drill team. In the lead are drum majors - Jonathan Dunn and Dwight Evans.

The many legs of the cheerleading family.





The Withrow Tigers in full force against Anderson.

"Okay . . . so do we pick it up or what?"

"I saw it . . . the big guy hit 'em!"

Dreams

In a world burdened by mediocrity and unconcern, it is imperative that you begin to dream dreams and fantasize about how your unique talents and skills will help others and enrich your life in the process.

You must recognize education as the path to your dreams - as the path to a better world. Value each of your days in school as an invitation to opportunity and an avenue to success. Commit yourself to greater academic involvement at the expense of leisure time, ease, and convenience. Remember that excellence is not a product of happenstance; it is the result of studied effort. As you begin to pursue your dreams, you will find that there is no substitute for hard work. It is the only key to a great many achievements that seem, at first, beyond our reach, but after having been won are regarded as mere stepping stones to even nobler attainments. Work leads to success and success to self-confidence and continued growth.

Enter the arena of academic competition and dream about reading better than, writing better than, and speaking better than. Dream about establishing the best level of performance in your classes. Come to school every day with a receptive attitude towards learning and a self-discipline that will not allow you to be drawn off course. Strive to do the best you can on achievement and college entrance tests. Set educational goals as well as life goals and develop a love for that will harness your dreams. You, as well as the adults who work with you, should set the highest possible standards of performance and remain unsatisfied until these expectations are met and subsequently exceeded.

Get in touch with the valuable person you are. Your parents and teachers realize your worth, but you must feel it. You must sense your potential and be guided by its wonderful presence. You alone will determine your success or failure. Your developing the self-esteem, self-respect, and self-discipline that lead to self-actualization and improved performance is essential to your personal evolvement.

After you've become number one among your peers, don't become complacent; compete with yourself by setting even higher standards. Break your own records of performance. Push yourself to continued academic and personal growth. Become the independent thinker and doer who goes beyond the classwork to introduce new ideas in the school and in the community. As you become an academic leader, demonstrate a concern for others by challenging your classmates to aspire. Use peer pressure in a positive way by encouraging your friends to achieve with you and become fellow competitors.

Life is not ordinary. You are not like anyone else. You have so many assets that you're not even aware of them all. The unique way you walk, smile, think, and talk has special meaning. You are meant to share your personality and experiences by contributing to others. You are not meant to fall prey to statistics. You are not supposed to be one of the 40% of American teenage girls becoming pregnant annually. You are not supposed to be one of the black males who contributes to a high rate of unemployment or who becomes a victim of homicide. You are not meant to be dulled or deceived by drugs or alcohol. You are not meant to be the one out of high school in this country. You are meant to be a leader. You are meant to be the president of the bank, the senator, the attorney, the judge, the doctor, the professor, the teacher, the engineer, the scientist. I am daring you to dream of becoming President of the United States. You are meant to be one person who makes a difference in a world that is fraught with need. You are the answer to the world's problems.

Above all, as you reach for your dreams, do so with honesty, fairness, and forthrightness. Grow with a transcending love of humanity and a sense of how one person can better the world.

If you "shoot for the moon" you may not reach it, but as you fall back on a star you will still be on high.

Something's Happening With

Freshly painted halls and lockers of pink, blue and peach greeted students as they entered Withrow this fall. Soon, the library was painted and gilded, the auditorium renovated, and all around the building the brass was polished to a glorious lustre. The renewal of our beautiful school was spearheaded by Monica Nolan and The Friends of Withrow, who lobbied, urged, and cajoled until their bright visions became a reality.

This renovation is one of the Friends more recent efforts in a long line of supportive projects and activities which have brought life to our school. Formed in 1981 with the restoration of the bridge, the Friends of Withrow have initiated and guided many repairs which have helped to restore Withrow's legendary beauty: the historic clock tower and chimes, the Rockwood tiles in the courtyard fountain are examples of early efforts.

In 1986 the Friends undertook a major campus landscaping project and by 1987 the Friends dedicated the campus Nature Preserve and Bird Sanctuary. With indefatigueable dedication and live, Monica Nolan charges into the future with plans for renovating the faculty lounge and student athletic facilities.

With leadership and love, and The Friends of Withrow on our side, you can be sure that at Withrow, "Something's really Happening!"

Hayride

Tension mounted for the Senior Hayride, November 15, as hyperactive seniors expressed their cheer and celebration on the bus ride to Handlebar Ranch.

Despite the damp and windy weather, spirits were warmed as 150 Seniors climbed on board two hay packed wagons for an hour and a half ride of singing and being jostled on hay that felt "like needles on the back of a porcupine."

The evening heated up when all the seniors packed into a cabin built for twenty, roasted hot dogs, had soft drinks, danced, all under the watchful eyes of chaperones.

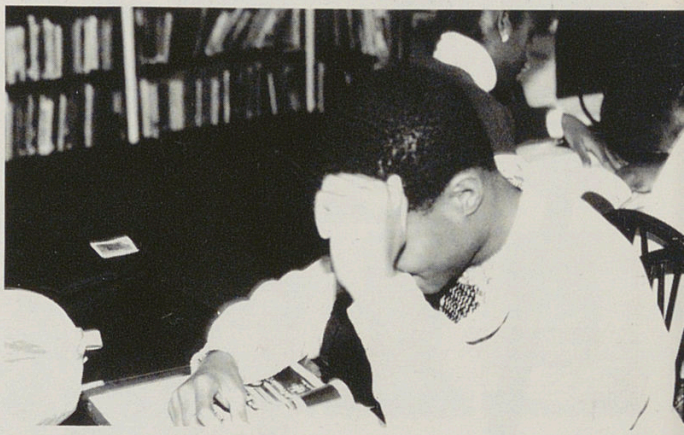
. . . SPECIAL PROGRAMS

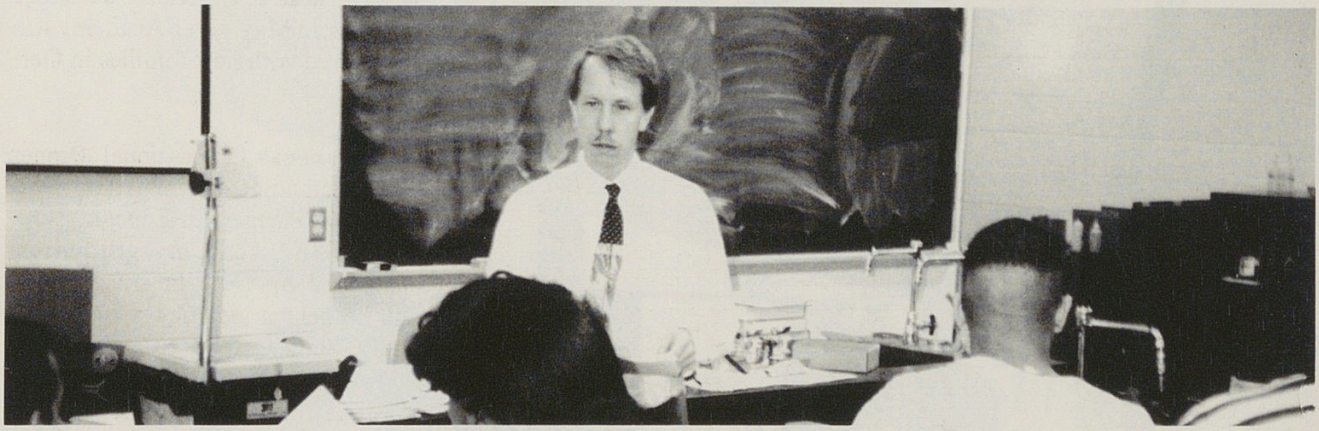
International Studies Program

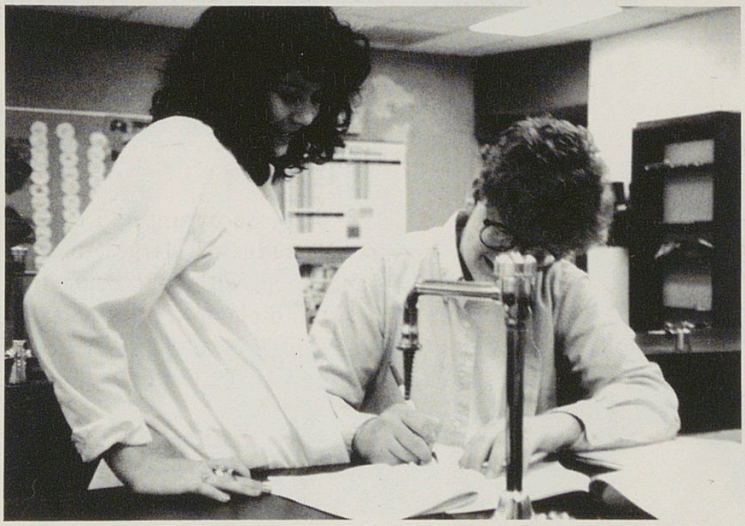
International Baccalaureate

(Preparation grades 9-10, Advanced Study 11-12)

- The IB is a system of courses and examinations designed with standards acceptable for admission to universities throughout the world. Students earn advanced credit up to one year at colleges and universities in Canada and the United States.
- The focus of the IB program is on developing the powers of the mind through which we interpret, modify, and enjoy our environment.
- The IB offices in Geneva, Switzerland and Southhampton, Great Britain are responsible for program review and for preparing and grading all external examinations.







Letter from the Director

This year the International Studies Academy continues to increase its enrollment, drawing students from around the city and more bilingual students than ever before.

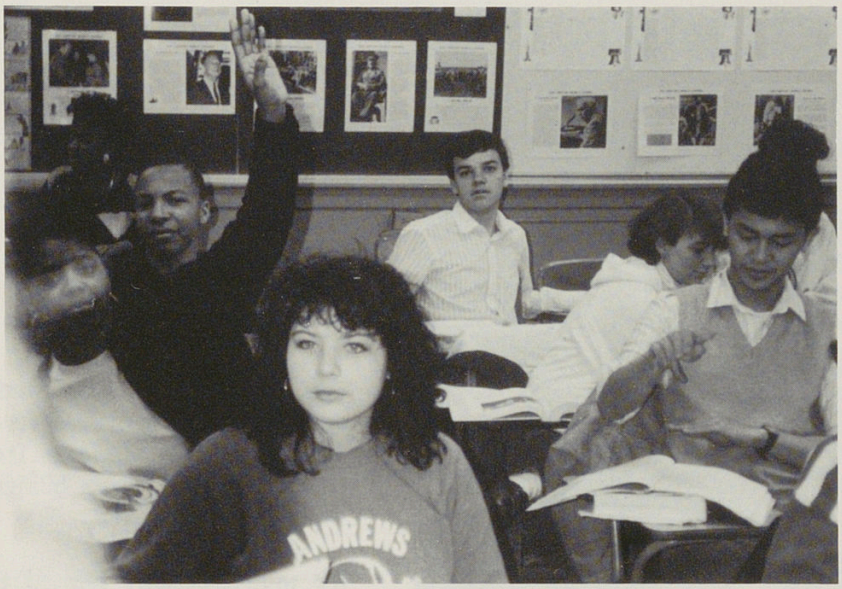
We were especially pleased this year to host ten German exchange students; in May, seven Academy students lived with host families in Germany.

The annual International Dinner had outstanding participation. This year the Partners-in-Education reception for Academy graduates, sponsored by Cincinnati Milicron, will be held in our newly renovated auditorium.

What makes the International Baccalaureate program unique is that students are in competition with students from all over the world. We are one of the few public schools in North America offering the Baccalaureate program.

This year the expanded I.B. program will graduate its largest number of candidates, with four competing for the full diploma.

Dr. Patricia Rice



ANDREWS

(grades 9-12)

- Special instructional service is provided to students whose first (mother) language is other than English.

- Classes in ESL are provided to students from over 15 different countries.

"Thalean Players"

Withrow's Drama Club, the "Thalean Players", is becoming more and more active in the life of Withrow. Laurence Boyd, the Players' director, took on Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" and, after hours of hard work with the Players themselves, made an excellent showing at the Winter Open House in December. The Players' successful record continued with their production of George Wolfe's "The Colored Museum," a hilarious satire on black history and culture. Mr. Boyd has big plans for Withrow's Drama Department including a childrens play. Whatever they take on, the Thalean Players are sure to leave the students, staff, and community well-entertained.

"What's Happening at Withrow," you ask? To get your answer, all you have to do is listen up during homeroom each and every day of the school year. Withrow's Voice of Communications will reach you with all of what's going on during the day and week.

WVOC staff members Jason Milgram, Steve Sippel, and Jenell Walton (all Juniors) are dedicatied to keeping their fellow students up-to-date on the school's events and don't mind having to decipher some of the world's worst handwriting.

From important meeting to the Penthouse's menu to the latest Withrow sports victory you can rest assured you'll always know "What's Happening at Withrow!"

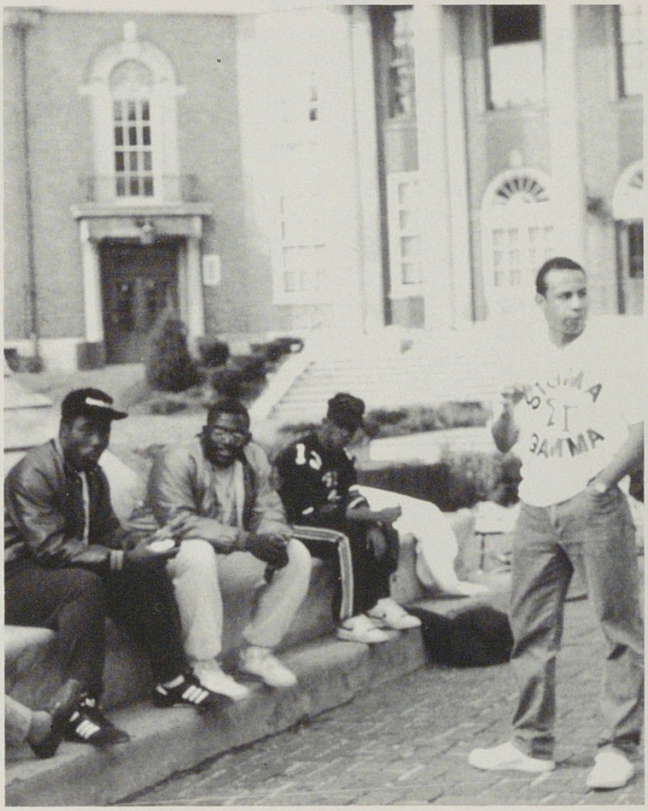
Earth Day

It was one o'clock on October 17th and the time had come once again for Withrow's service organizations and other volunteers to aid in the beautification of our campus. The students gathered in Withrow's Nature preserve and learned the do's and don'ts in planting flower bulbs from Ms. Pesek. Ms. Greene, Ms. Bard, and Monica Nolan (in between their digging of holes) graciously provided the workers with donuts and apple cider. Even with the distraction of a swarm of yellow jackets, a lot was accomplished. All the help was well appreciated. The volunteers were able to witness the fruits (or flowers) of their labor in the blooming season of spring.



Top Right: Sig candidate, Steve Sippel and Dux candidate, Ewanna Johnson, show their devoted will to help.

Bottom: Dux advisor "Mother Green" pours apple juice for the hard workers.
