MR. BERT R. LYON

Barytone and Teacher of Singing, will devote a portion of each week to his school. He is a thorough musician, organist, pianist and an accompanist of exceptional ability, and a most successful teacher.

Mr. Lyon is an exponent of the principles advocated by the renowned authority on voice building, Mr. William Shakespeare, of London, England, and the great French master, Jacques Bouhy, with whom he studied, both of whom spoke enthusiastically of his voice training and his highly intelligent and artistic singing.

"You paint lovely pictures with your voice," one day exclaimed the great London teacher, William Shakespeare, to Mr. Lyon, and this high praise is fully appreciated by those who have had the good fortune to listen to this talented singer.—Lexington Times.

Mr. Lyon's services are available for concert and recital work.
