

- Item 5—Our rowdyism to the next worse class.
- Item 6—Our love and respect to the Faculty.
- Item 7—Our union and consequent strength, as an example to those who may follow after.
- Item 8—Our State Board fears to the Juniors.
- Item 9—Our clinical patients to those of us who may stay for spring clinic.
- Item 10—To Professor Way and the demonstrators, our love and thanks.

We do, singly and individually, give and devise as follows:

- Item 1—Edwards, the curbstone comedian, leaves to Kent his propensities for being funny, together with the copyright of all his jokes and gags.
- Item 2—Elias to Thornton, the task of appointing a satisfactory invitation committee.
- Item 3—Bradley leaves to Workman his pompadour (the copyright is included).
- Item 4—Miss Stock leaves her brilliancy to the girl in the Junior class who needs it most. Also, sixty-seven invitations to the whole Junior class.
- Item 5—Mondon leaves chin whiskers to Wells, the goat.
- Item 6—Devine leaves his haberdashery to Ed., the porter.
- Item 7—Rouse leaves his hunting coat to any Junior who will accept it.
- Item 8—Eaton leaves his dates, and all things supplementary thereto, to Kinsley.
- Item 9—Greenburg leaves his ventriloquist powers to the Junior who will occupy No. 41 in Hall B.
- Item 10—Pursell leaves his chew to Martin (this will cause some jealousy, but Martin deserves it).
- Item 11—Greenfield leaves his forelocks to Noel.
- Item 12—Wright, Thomas and Greenburg leave their names—off the invitations.
- Item 13—Bradley leaves "essay" to Faculty.
- Item 14—Burdette leaves his rubber-dam weights to Walton.
- Item 15—Mrs. Cannon leaves "Missus" to Miss Hildebrand. (Maybin please notice.)
- Item 16—Boltz, the recanteur, leaves to Beagle, '09, all his stories, and copyrights thereto, providing that Beagle has them filtered.
- Item 17—Mitchell leaves all the dancing academies to Wick.
- Item 18—Kelly leaves Peoples' Theater to McClung.
- Item 19—Thompson leaves the College of Music to Falbush.
- Item 20—Krucker and Rothenbush leave the C., H. & D. Railroad to Kellar.
- Item 21—Risk leaves his private practice to "Buddy."
- Item 23—Marshall leaves all his agricultural mannerisms to Purdy.
- Item 23—Kraatz leaves his hirsute appendage to Thompson, '08.

We hereby nominate and appoint Professor T. I. Way executor of this our last will and testament, hereby authorizing and empowering him to compromise, adjust and discharge, in such manner as he may deem proper, the debts owing or due us.

We desire that no appraisement and no sale be made of our personal property [Ed. NOTE—It has been hard enough trying to give it away], and that the Court of Crowbait direct the omission, in pursuance of the statute.

We do hereby revoke all former wills made by us.

In testimony whereof we have hereby set our hand, this 9th day of May, in the year 1907.

[Signed.] CLASS OF NINETEEN SEVEN,
OHIO COLLEGE OF DENTAL SURGERY,
Per JACK SIEGFRIED.

Signed by said Class of 1907 as their last will and testament, in our presence, and signed by us in their presence.

FRANK BERGER,
H. T. SMITH,

Witnesses.

THUREL HICKS, Attorney at Law.
