WE DOUBT IT

When a girlie you have in your chair all alone,
And no one to gossip about it,
Do you pray a demonstrator your way to roam?
Well, maybe you do—but we doubt it!

When a sly little hand you're permitted to seize,
With a velvety softness about it;
Do you think you would drop it with never a squeeze?
Well, maybe you do—but we doubt it!

When this same little girl gives one little smile,
With wonderful sweetness about it,
Do you always remove your arm for awhile?
Well, you might—but we can't help but doubt it!

When she starts down the stairs with a glance so coy,
Which sure has a meaning behind it,
Do you return to your work like a good little boy?
There's nothing left—but to doubt it!

When this tapering waist is in reach of your arm,
With a wonderful plumpness about it,
Do you argue the point 'twixt the good and the charm?
Maybe you do—but we doubt it!

On the following day Doctor Way says to you,
"Yesterday's roll-call, methinks you missed it!"
Do you say: "Doctor Way, I ducked out with Lou?"
Maybe you do—but we doubt it!
