The students of the O. C. D. S. were royally entertained on the night of January 24, 1907, by the Masonic Club at Avon Lodge, Avondale. After a very enjoyable musical and literary programme refreshments were served, which was followed by a dance. The entertainment consisted of the following selections:

Address of Welcome . . . . . O. P. Elias

Piano Solo . . . . . Miss Beddow

Quartet . . . . . Psi Omega
Fred. Wood, Ivan Wright, Harry McLaughlin, R. Kelsey.

Cornet Solo . . . . . James Maybin

Piano Solo . . . . . Miss Willis

Quartet . . . . . Xsi Psi Phi
Lee Rinehart, C. Miller, Lester Meisenheimer, Charles
Kelleher.

Piano Solo . . . . . Miss Beddow

The Xsi Psi Phi Fraternity gave the opening dance of the college year on November 16, 1906. The affair took place at the mansion, on Walnut Hills, and was a most enjoyable occasion. The hall was elegantly decorated with their colors—lavender and cream.

The second annual dance of the Psi Omega Fraternity took place at the mansion, on Walnut Hills, February 27, 1907. There was a large attendance, among whom were many out-of-town guests. Doctor Homer Mannon, '06, of Huntington, W. Va., led the grand march, and, by the way, every thing went on, the committee in charge left nothing undone to make it one of the most enjoyable of the season.
