All Fired Up!

Whether you entered a lowly freshman, a confident sophomore, a carefree junior, or a college-conscious senior, the 1988-89 school year was one to be all fired up about.

The spark began in August with the return of over 1800 students. As fall set in, we got off to a roaring start. We anxiously awaited Homecoming parties, the game, and the dance. Extra-curricular groups began, offering something for everyone.

Fall turned to winter and the basketball season was upon us.

Caught in the spirit, the first semester flew by.

Third quarter blues set in, but we were rejuvenated by the school musical, "Once Upon a Mattress" as everyone looked forward to spring break.

Finally, spring fever sparked. We all planned for the events that signified the end of the school year — prom, exams, and, of course, graduation. Though the seniors prepared to leave, another class prepared to enter, and the flame of Sycamore High School continues to burn brightly.

Classes display spirit

Suddenly, as if out of nowhere, the onslaught hit. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors all approached the new school year with different ideas, moods, and goals; but always fired up about the new year.

Freshmen: Fired up about the new atmosphere and environment that they were now a part of and scared of.

Sophomores: Eager to see if they could step up in the world of high school life.

Juniors: Fired up to start something new in the now familiar setting.

Seniors: Fired up about anything and everything that they came into contact with. Fired up to get ready for that soon to come new life called college.

Student Life

The 88-89 school year began with a bang. Beginning with award winning sports all the way to the academic team, our spirit just kept growing. There was no telling how far the Aviators would go. The year was endowed with traditional events such as dances, plays, and musicals. However, this year, creativity ran wild. Sycamore invented new and better things. "The Hangar" was created right in our own gym. Novel, student-oriented events such as Battle of the Bands and Spring Fling were great successes. The students of Sycamore High remained all fired up.

This excitement carried over to the personal level as well. Midst all the hustle and bustle, new friendships kindled while old ones roared. Student life at Sycamore is more than books, classes, and events. It's people making memories. And the memories brought about by this year will never be forgotten.

Spirit Week

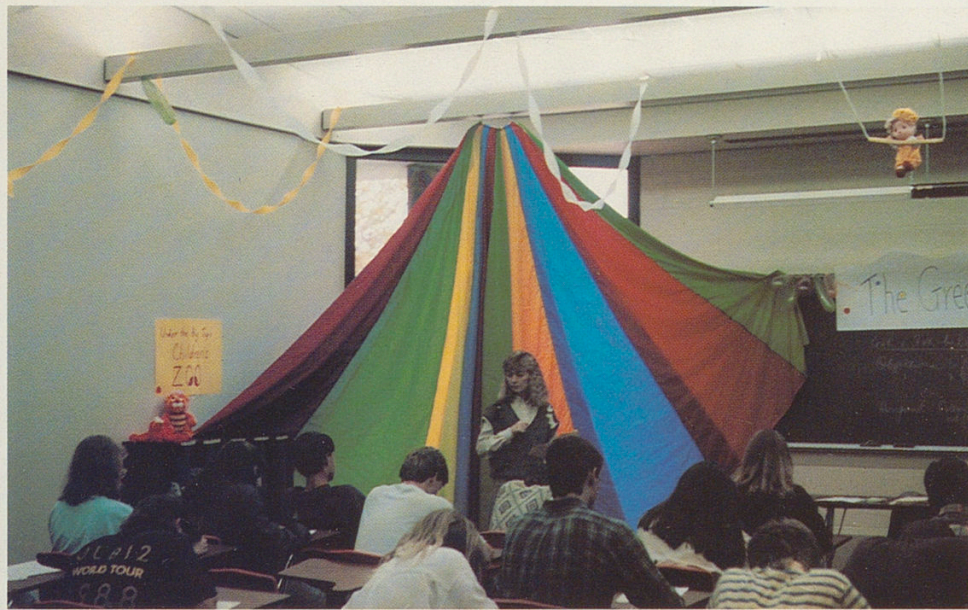

Spirit week brought an extra flair to the Homecoming excitement. The spirit of '88-'89 far surpassed that of last year's classes. The circus theme could be seen throughout the school from the decorations in the classrooms to the clothing of the spirited students. Awards for the best decorated first bell rooms were given to the most creative classes. At the parade on Thursday night, the seniors won first place for their float, "Devour the Redskins."

Sports and Pep Rallies

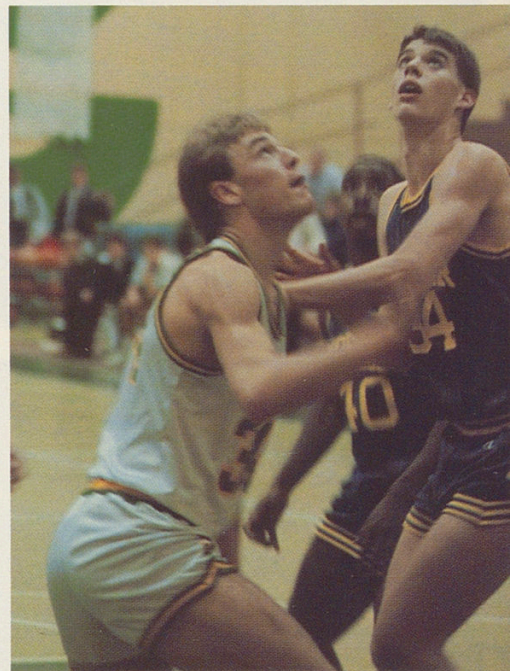

Cool autumn nights brought crowds to Sycamore's football games and soccer matches. Icy, cold winter days brought fans to basketball games, swim meets, and wrestling matches. Finally, warm spring weather attracted spectators to baseball games and track meets.

The teams played hard while the fans cheered encouragement. Not only did the athletic events attract crowds, but so did Sycamore's pep rallies.

"The pep rallies," commented one sophomore, "created more spirit and school pride." This year there were more pep assemblies. The spirit of the rallies could be felt in the music of the band, the dances of the flyerettes and flag corps, and the cheers led by Sycamore's award winning cheerleaders.

With the advent of more pep rallies, the students' spirit and enthusiasm was illustrated at almost all sporting events. The crowds at the soccer and basketball games were the highest in years. Teams such as water polo, golf, tennis, and swimming competed in State tournaments. Overall, this year's effort to increase Sycamore's "FIRE" helped in contributing to the teams' performances.

Spirit Ignites Sycamore

It was a perfect climax to an exciting spirit week. The parade and bonfire on Thursday generated a lot of spirit, and on Friday the football team "scalped the Redskins" (Anderson) with a 21-6 victory. Sycamore's marching band, Flyerettes, and flag corps performed a dazzling half-time show.

The coronation ceremony followed as freshman, Katie Warzon and Chris Rutkai; sophomores Kristen Farnsworth and Scott Welch; juniors, Betsy Warzon and Greg Hewitt; seniors, Mary Cassidy, Shannon Scalcucci (tie) and Peter Davis; and the King and Queen, seniors, Gretchen Friedersdorf and Chris Abbe were all crowned midst a spectacular fireworks display.

Big Night Under the Big Top

By 9 o'clock on Saturday night the parking lot was beginning to fill. The rustle of taffeta and lace dresses could be heard as girls were helped from the car by thoughtful dates. Inside the commons, the band LIXX was starting some opening tunes while the first few couples stepped out onto the dance floor. The theme was "Big Night Under the Big Top," and colorful decorations transformed the commons into a magical circus. The red and yellow big top was the most eye-catching, surrounded by various circus animals, brightly decorated tables, and of course, lots of balloons.

By 10 o'clock the dance floor was packed with students dancing and enjoying themselves. Finally, the court was presented to the students at 11:30 while the band played the theme song, "Wild Horses" by the Rolling Stones.

Holiday Dance

For this Sadie Hawkins dance, girls worked up enough courage to ask their favorite guy. To add to the holiday spirit, the flurries that afternoon decorated the area with a blanket of snow. Once inside the dance, the stairs, commons, and lockers were in a "Peppermint Paradise" with streamers, lights, and giant candy canes. After getting pictures taken, couples began to mingle, and by ten o'clock, the commons was filled to celebrate the Holiday Dance. Students danced until midnight to the band Red Wine.

Fall Play

This year's fall production, "Arsenic and Old Lace," was about two seemingly harmless old ladies. But these ladies were far from harmless. In order to alleviate their suffering from forgotten youth, they murdered old, lonely men!

All Fired Up

School spirit continued to climb throughout the year at games, dances, and pep rallies. More people than ever were eager to "stand up and do the funky chicken."

Odd Couples' Celebration

Couples of all shapes and particularly sizes attended the Odd Couples' Ball on February 18. Students brought moms, dads, and friends to the S.H.A.P.E. sponsored dance. The evening included dinner, dancing to Ooh La La and the Greasers, and many door prizes.

Variety Show

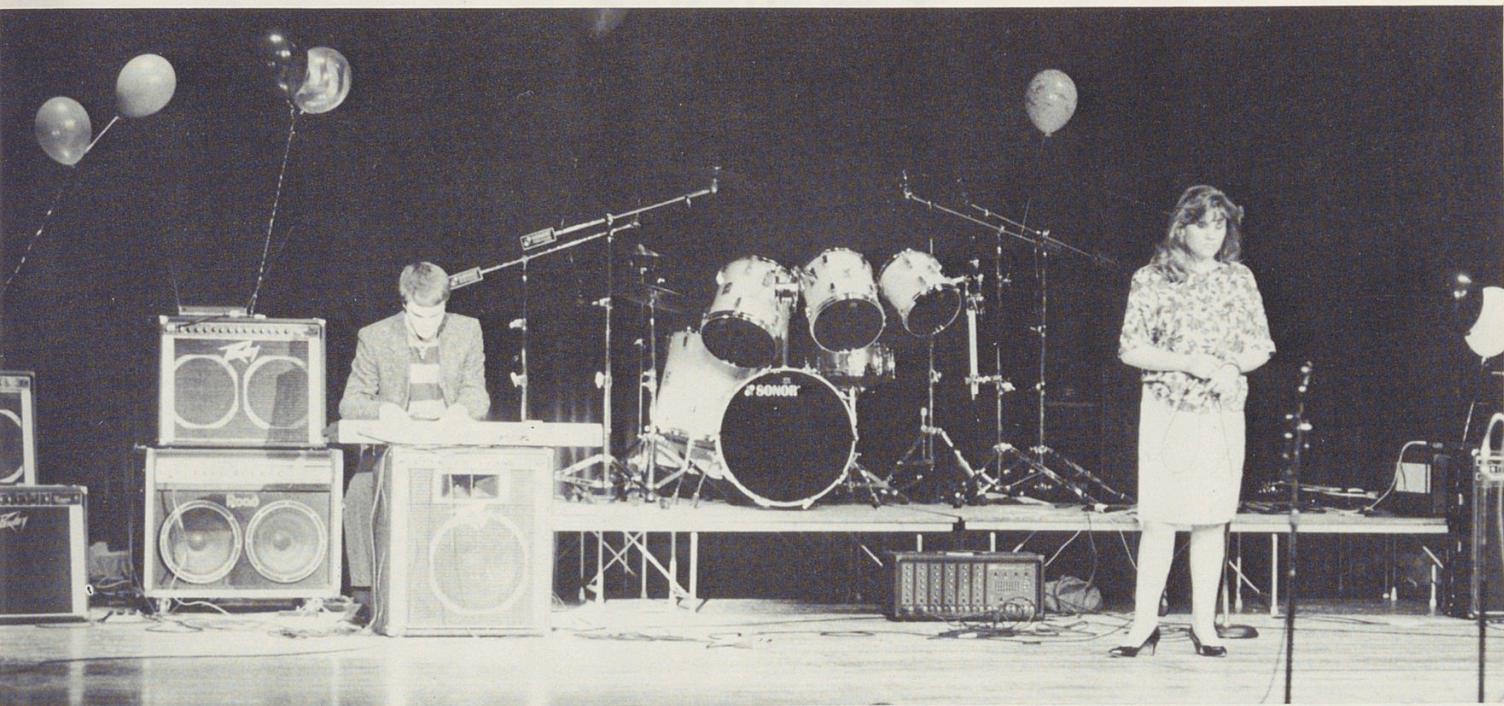

On Wednesday, April 12, parents and students piled into the Little Theatre to see their sons, daughters, and friends perform.

Mrs. Brenda Huffines, Sycamore's Choir director, was pleased with the turn out. This was the tenth year for the Variety Show and once again, the response was overwhelming.

"The Variety Show gives kids who are in the music department a chance to have stage experience that they normally don't get during concerts or contests," said Huffines. "But it also shows off the kids who aren't in the music department, but who are very talented."

"Once Upon a Mattress"

On March 2, 3, and 4, Sycamore students channeled their time and energy into the musical production, "Once Upon a Mattress."

"Throughout the land no one may wed till Dauntless to the alter is led." This problem plagued a medieval kingdom in the comic version of "The Princess and the Pea."

Fortunately, Princess Winnefred ascends from the mire and muck of the swamp, surpasses all tests set before her, and saves the day.

Student Activities

Tophat and Tail

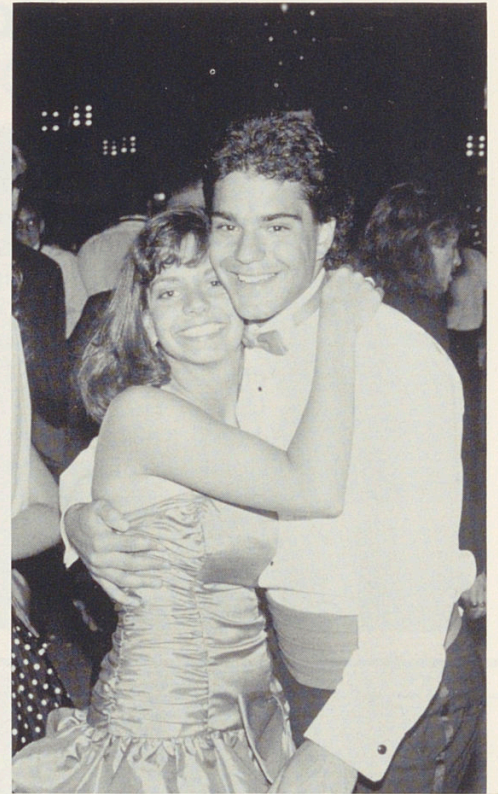

From 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. on the evening of May 20, the junior class hosted the prom at the Oasis in Loveland. Red, silver, black, and white decorations corresponded with the "Tophat and Tails" theme. The climax of the evening unfolded as Justine Holmes and Ron Corradini were crowned Prom King and Queen.

Comedies Tonight

"Something esthetic, something frenetic, something for everyone, a comedy tonight!"

The spring play, Comedies Tonight, had something for everyone. It was presented May 4, 5, & 6 in the Little Theatre, and it included scenes from Taming of the Shrew, Chapter Two, Next, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead, You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, I'm Herbert, and many others. It also included the musical numbers Comedy Tonight and Applause. The ensemble, consisting of 16 actresses and actors, kept 'em rolling in the aisles all three performances. The spring play was an appropriate end to a season filled with comedies.

Spring Fling

Sycamore High School's first annual Spring Fling was held April 14th out on the faculty parking lot. The weather was great, and hundreds of students enjoyed the carnival-like atmosphere that prevailed. Numerous booths of both food and games lined the pavement. Among the favorites were the pie tossing booth sponsored by SSTAG and the dunking booth sponsored by Student Council. The Little 500, a tricycle relay race, kicked off the afternoon as teams competed for the first ever title. The bands, Rude Awakening and Chilly Willy, winners of the first Battle of the Bands, kept the crowds dancing and the sound of music in the air. Everyone enjoyed themselves immensely at the first annual Spring Fling, a great success.

Sports — State Titles

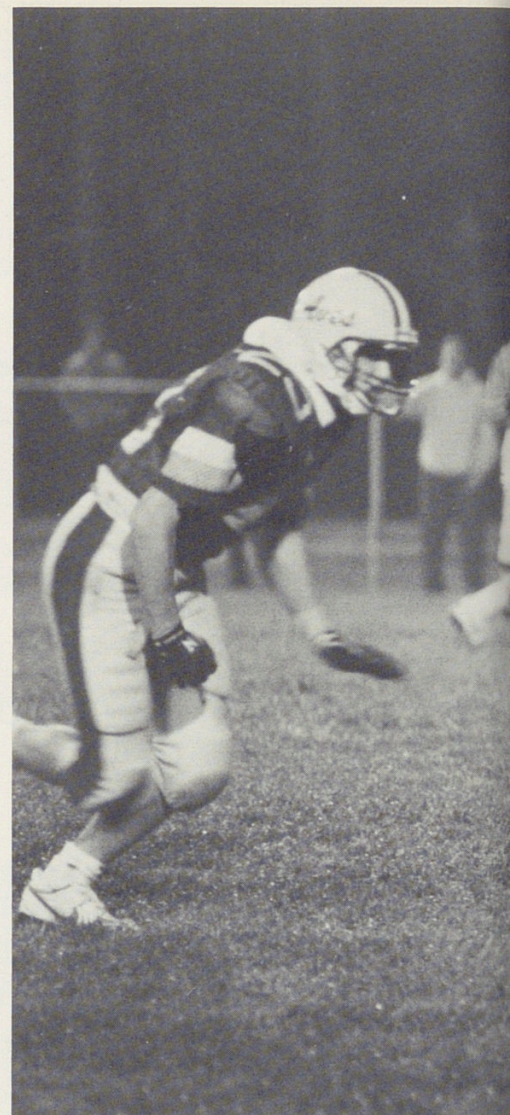

Many teams had successful seasons, but three seniors were outstanding. Glenn Terry (above) and Dean Panaro won state titles in track and diving respectively, while Scott Ross was the state runner up in golf.

After a slow start, the team finished the season with a 14-4-4 mark and was ranked fourth in the final coaches poll. In tournament play the Aves defeated Milford, Princeton, and the city's number one team Anderson before losing in the district finals to Turpin in a sudden death double overtime. Greg Legeza, Mike Scherr, and Chris Duffield were named to the all-city team.

Coach Gausmann remarked on the season, "Even though the season started slowly, the players never quit trying, and we were able to turn the season around."

Varsity Golf

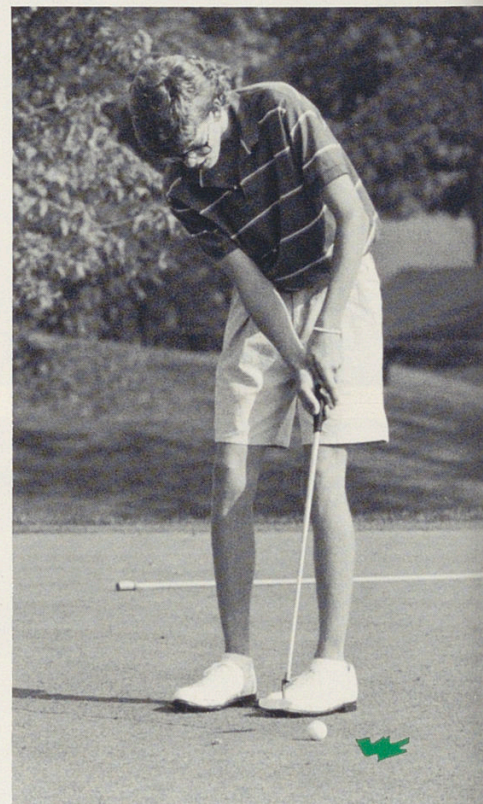

The 1989 varsity team compiled one of the best records in the school's history. Besides finishing the regular season with a 15-0 record and being ranked number one in the final coaches' poll, the linksters placed second in the District, third in the Regional, and sixth in the State.

Seniors Scott Ross, John Patterson, and Mike O'Connor provided the experience, while sophomores Todd Nemenz and Steve Rosenberg improved throughout the season to give the team depth.

Scott Ross had an outstanding senior year. His 37.5 nine hole average was one of the best in the city, and he finished second in the State just one stroke behind the winner. He was also named the player of the year by the Cincinnati Post and the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Gymnastics

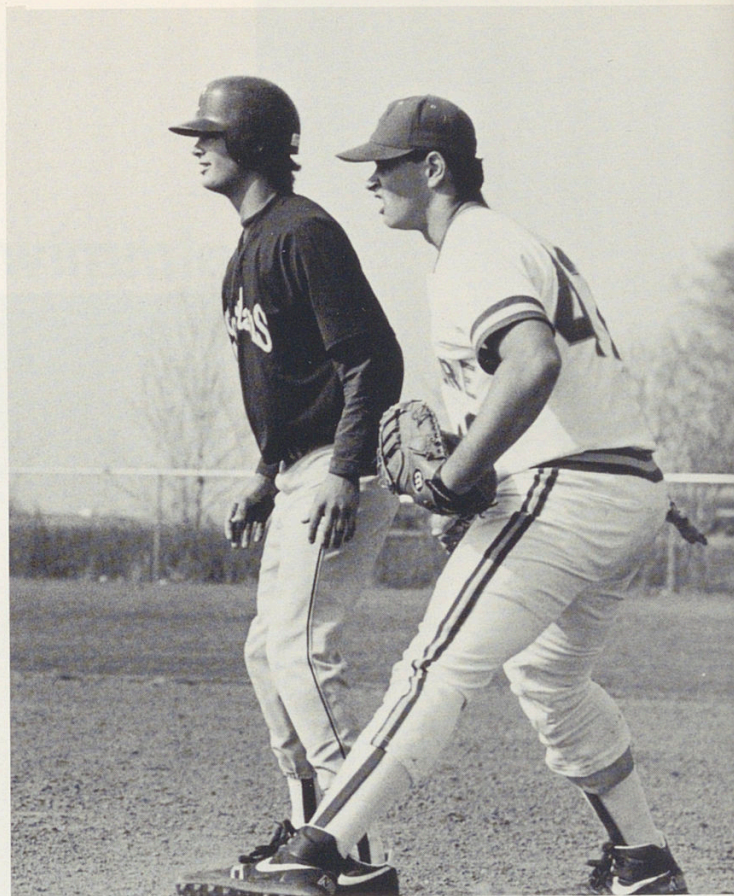

Sycamore's gymnastics team certainly had a season to be proud of, especially with a record of 10-2. Head coach, Cindy Zetterberg, and assistant coach, Tammy Taylor, led the team to a second place finish at the Miamisburg Invitational and a fourth place finish at the Franklin Invitational. Two Sycamore gymnasts, Missy Fischer and Charnie Keller, competed in the state meet. The team would get each other fired up before meets by leaving candy and inspirational notes in each other's lockers. If Sycamore were competing in a gymnastics meet, it would surely be easy to tell. How? By listening for their team chant: "Hey, Sycamore, how do you feel?" And in response: "We feel good, oh we feel so good, hey" Joyce Koehl, Chrissy Raye, Liz Bardes, Julie Blackburn, Coach Zetterberg, Coach Taylor, Charnie Keller, Anne Devanney, Lynn Duncan, Carrie Bock, Wendy McCausland, Jessica Sabin, Missi Fischer, Carla Fritschi, Claudia Schaefer, Dori Brothers

Marching Band

This year, the Band won numerous awards in local contests. They finished first in the Glen-Este Invitational, in which they were scored in such categories as marching, music, and form. In the Lockland Band Competition, they won third place with the drum majors and drum corps taking first place in their divisions.

The Log

Producing a yearbook is a time consuming task that requires time and dedication. The student body response to working on the Log was almost non-existent after several months of announcements. But thanks to Editor Joel Pravda and Assistant Editor Lori Mills and a few other dedicated students there is a 1989 yearbook. Lori and Joel, pictured above right, along with Betsy Warzon, Rick Juneja, Kayoko Matsumara, Mrs. Kitchen's composition classes, and various other contributors worked many hours to compile the Log.

Academic Team

1988-1989 was the first year ever for the Sycamore High School Academic Team. Mr. Joe Powell, Mr. Jim Thomas, and fourteen enthusiastic participants received fifth place in the Greater Miami Academic and Athletic Conference with a regular season record of 3-4. They also finished the season with a third place win in the tournament. Although practices and tournaments took a lot of time and preparation, both Mr. Powell and Mr. Thomas are optimistic about coaching again next year . . . "and the Sycamorons will prevail!"

National Honor Society

The Sycamore High School National Honor Society, advised by Mrs. Lois Lambert, inducted 44 new members this year in addition to 26 returning members. NHS service projects for 1988-1989 included the record breaking Canned Food Drive in February and the Little Miami River Clean up in June.

THE CLASS OF '89 THANKS YOU

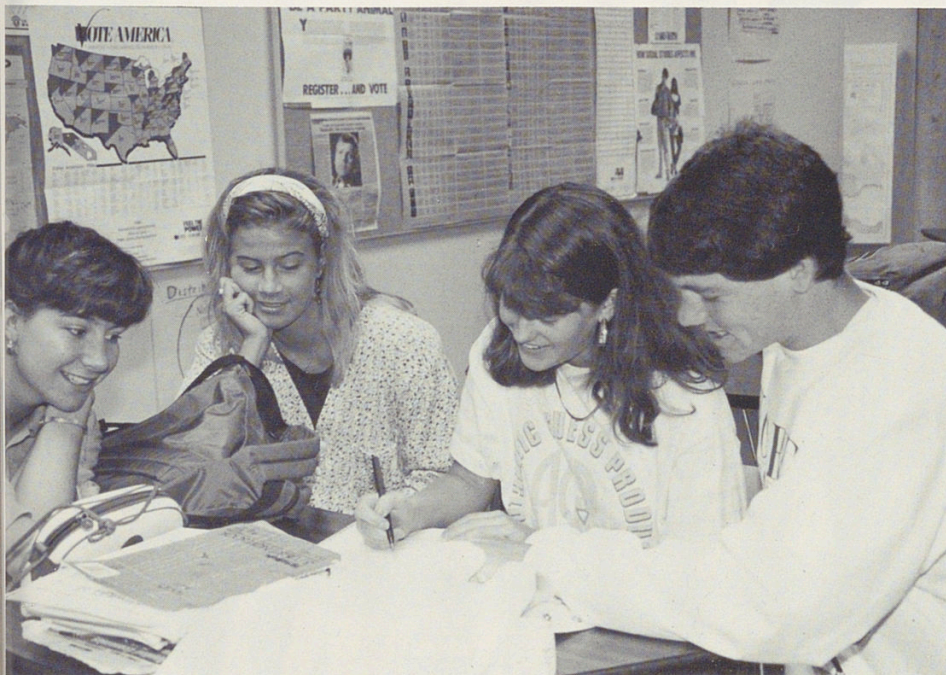

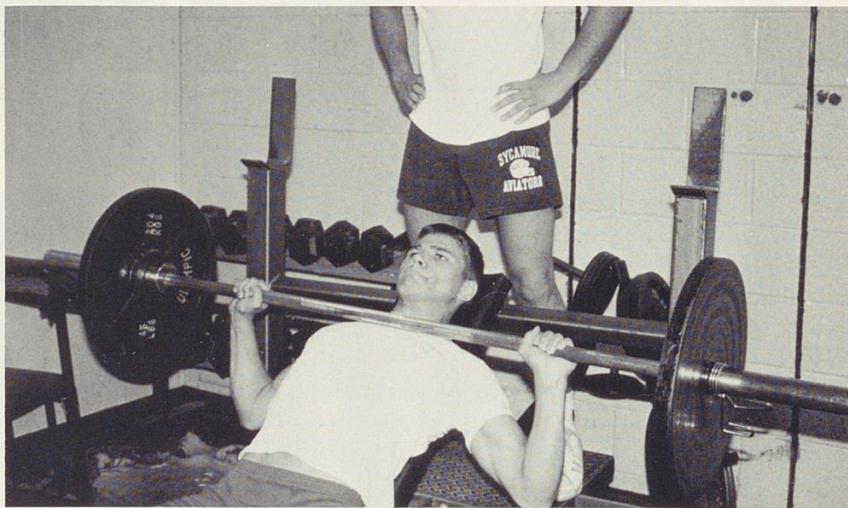

To the faculty and staff of Sycamore High,
the class of '89 says a final goodbye.
The last four years have gone very fast.
Of course, the education and memories will last.
We did arrive a motley crowd,
but four years later, aren't you proud?
As freshmen we thought we were very nice,
but still you brought in Toma — twice!
Then you closed the smoking lounge.
For just a puff, you made us scrounge.
And then there was the deal with parking passes.
You never believed that's why we were late to classes.
So that was yet another DT to serve,
which, of course, we didn't deserve.
To some teachers we caused such strife,
that we forced them into the retired life.
Others still are hanging on,
thankful that we'll soon be gone.
I guess with Barnes we were in a rut.
So they brought in a guy whose name was Tutt.
Under his reign, we've been for three years.
He helped us all and calmed our fears.
As freshmen, we put Ms. Rose to the test.
In spite of us, she did her very best.
Then Mr. Hill had us for two more years, causing him to get a little gray about the ears.
It was past the Rose and over the Hill to give dear Mr. Klasmeier quite a thrill.
His many late nights and dedications

Balanced his endless jokes and humiliation.
Mr. K. said "To Columbus we'll go!"
However, the way he didn't quite know.
Three and a half hours in a school van;
giggly girls and guys and a very lost man.
We finally got there; much fun we had.
Plans turned out well. See? The luncheon's not bad!
Mr. K., Miss Robinson, and, of course, Stritt, guaranteed this year would be a big hit.
What's up Stritt? We thought this year was great.
But now you're off to Ohio State.
Dear Miss Robinson — words can't say
all you've done to get us here today.
To the counselors — you helped us find our place.
Now we're off to enter the real rat race.
With Plus Reports and GPA's,
I guess you proved that studying pays.
To Jerry, Ralph, Ed, and the crew,
big thanks for cleaning up all the food we threw.
After that, the pranks weren't bad,
but throwing flour off the balcony is pretty sad.
Homecoming, Kidnap, Dances too,
are special memories to name just a few.
Academics, of course, earn a place,
but in my poem, they don't get much space.
The time has come, we're outta here,
but there's one thing that's very clear.
Thanks to you, we made it through.
The Class of '89 says a big THANK YOU!!!!

Volume 46 of the Sycamore Log was printed by Hunter Publishing Company in Winston — Salem, North Carolina, in the fall of 1989. The cover was school designed and litho — laminated on white book cloth. End sheets are 65 pound white parchment stock. Paper stock is 80 pound glossy and 80 pound dull. The type face and headline style used was Helvetica. On the cover and divider pages Mistral type face was used. Photography was provided by Executive Studios of Cincinnati and some members of the Log staff. The yearbook is advised by Mr. Jim Cafferty. Mr. Steve Zerbe is the representative for the Hunter Publishing Company. Total press run for the 1989 Log was 208 pages and 1000 copies by offset lithography.
