

Seniors Barb Hoerner, Julie Lederach, and Jennifer Lajti warm up their voices before choir practice. Each member of all the choirs put in many after-school hours to perfect every performance.

Mrs. Miller accompanies the Chamber Choir on the piano at the vocal department's Winter concert. The Chamber Choir is made up of select singers in grades ten through twelve.

Choir director Brenda Huffines encourages her students to miles as she conducts them during a rehearsal. Huffines is in charge of coordinating the activities of the whole vocal music department, a time-consuming job.

Senior Jodi Schneider performs a solo number at the Winter concert. Schneider devotes a great deal of her time to the performing arts, as she consistently has lead roles in theatrical productions as well.

