

GOLDEN GIRLS

By: Ellie Armstrong

Once an Aviator, always an Aviator. You're never too old to love gold. The team worked rigorously to fight for tradition. Over the past twelve years, the program maintained a top four title.

Early in the season, the teammates realized it would take faith in each other to reach their goal.

"Water polo teaches strategy, and it is necessary to communicate with your teammates and have confidence that the other players will do whatever it takes to help defend or score a goal," said Senior

Ingle, 12, said, "Everyone on the team brings something to the table and you can do so much when you have a team to back you up."

After a season of grueling six A.M. practices, arduous lifting before practice, and challenging practices every day, the Lady Aviators reached their goal. Ingle received an All-Ohio 2nd Team distinction and the team beat Worthington Kilbourne to get fourth in state.
