

"This was by far my favorite year of cheering for Sycamore. It was so much fun making it so far in the playoffs, and getting to keep the season going for a little longer. It was a great season to end my senior year with!"

-Brianna Sloan, 12

— LOVE ALL AROUND —

The cheer squad devotes themselves to loving and supporting one another. Marlee Treta, 12, speaks of her year, and her love for her teammates. "Basketball season flew by, and I will miss cheering on the court so much. The excitement and thrill from the games is unforgettable. Love all around for the squad!"
