

MAKING MOVES

"Playing against the other members for fun is my favorite because there isn't really any pressure and we can talk normally, rather than being quiet like during matches," said Foster Dawson, 11.

"For GMC's, we had to play nine games in a row, so it was extremely tiring but we also had a lot of fun with it. It brought everyone closer, and it's nice seeing everyone support each other even if we lose," said Anushri Sharma, 10.

1. Junior Justin Ruksenas studies the board determining his next move.
2. Second board, Max Guo, 12, competes in a weekly match.
3. Chess club meets every Friday to play against each other, study openings and other strategies, and snack.
