

Karisa Grandison

You have been a gift of grace from the moment you tumbled into our lives.

We are proud of you, not just for what you've done, but for who you are. Your smile is as bright as sunshine for all to see. Yet underneath lies a heart that is as kind as it is steady; as tender as it is resilient; and as precious as it is strong.

You may ask yourself, "Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous?" Actually, who are you not to be? You are an adored sister, a cherished daughter, a child of God. You are incredibly loved and know this, we all have your back.

Con Mucho Amor,
Mom, Dad, Lucia, & Chauncey
