On your first day of kindergarten, your teacher presented your drawing of a superhero-ninja-basketball player-alien who was fighting an army of space bug monsters. She laughingly warned us that we were in for an interesting time with you, and she was right. Watching you grow up has been a wonderful adventure. We are so proud of you and all you have done, and can't wait to see what is next.

We are so incredibly proud of the amazing young lady you have become. Your caring and compassionate heart will carry you far. Always remember you are braver than you think, stronger than you seem, smarter than you give yourself credit for and loved more than you'll ever know!
