

Politics, media, life...

By: Natalie Ludy

7/12

Israel retaliates after Lebanese Hezbollah agents murder three Israeli soldiers. This was the start of a short, but deadly Israel-Lebanon war.

8/2

An outbreak of E. coli poisoning in spinach effects 26 states in the U.S. 199 people were sickened and two died. All companies were forced to recall their spinach products.

8/10

A plot made by terrorists to blow up British jets leaving for the United States is discovered by Pakistani authorities. Authorities believed the plan was to mix a sport drink with a gel like substance to create a potent explosive. Liquids or gels were no longer allowed to be brought on a plane for a while.

9/4

Animal Planet's Crocodile Hunter, Steve Irwin, is killed on film when a stingray barb pierces his heart. Irwin and his crew were shooting a show on the Great Barrier Reef off the Northeast coast of Australia when the accident happened.

“I was flying to Florida to see my grandparents and a security guard at the airport decided to randomly check my bags. It's so weird how much security has tightened since 9/11 and all.”

-Ashley Ryan, 10

