

Passed High School Collect $1.50 →	Blue Ash Elementary School used to be on the corner of Cooper and Kenwood Roads. Sycamore Schools bought Wyndat Elementary, an Indian Hill School for $3,000,000. Later they converted it to the present day Blue Ash Elementary School. Blue Ash Elementary School	 Sycamore Community Chest	In 1962, Greene School was built for grades 6, 7, and 8. In 1949 Edwin H. Greene was appointed superintendent of Sycamore. After his retirement in 1947, the Board named one of the new schools Edwin H. Greene School. Greene School	 Science Class	ANCE
THE LEAF The first newspaper, The Tatler, was published in 1933. The editor was Ruth Foley. In the 1940's it was changed to, The Keyhole, and in 1965 it was changed to The Leaf. THE LOG In 1926, the first Log was published. It had a blue cover and was 38 pages long. From 1932-1940's there was no Log due to the Depression years.	Avesopoly Trivia of Sycamore By: Brittany Lewis It all started in 1902 when the first classes at Sycamore began. They were taught at what used to be Montgomery Elementary School. In 1904 a three-year school was established at the old Blue Ash Elementary School. 15 years later, six school districts joined to form a high school. The high school at 5757 Cooper road was built in 1925. 1928-1929 was the first class to graduate from Sycamore. The present day Sycamore High School on 7400 Cornell Road was established in 1975. Since then 32 classes have graduated. All these events have shaped Sycamore's history in unique ways. They have also contributed to our unique trivia. 			 Mascot Tracey Abraham is dressed in his Aviator outfit cheering on the 1997 basketball team. Tracey was the pride of the Aves. He was also the first mascot.
CHANGE 	MISC. -1965 was the first foreign exchange student at Sycamore. -1890, Ohio set a goal to have a high school in every county. -Latin Club started in 1962-63. -French Club started in 1962.	MISC. -In 1971 the Sycamore football team was named the highest scoring team in the Cincinnati area. -In 1994, the Hall of Fame was created. The first banquet was held September 7, 1996.
GO TO  DETENTION	BAND -In 1947, The Band played for the first time at a Sycamore/Taylor football game. -When the football team began in 1947-48, Jack Valz organized the first band. They played seated in the stands and wore green and gold hip length capes up to 1955.	ORCHESTRA In 1927, the PTA organized an orchestra of 16 members including string and band instruments: banjos, trumpets, saxophones, clarinets, and flutes. The orchestra leader was Mr. Wiley.	REBOPS This band formed in 1977-78. The original "ReBops" were guitarist Don Hayden, drummer Mike Hassleback, guitarist Paul Alexander, vocalist Linda Kaelin, and bassist Gene Dobs.	MATH CLASS 	CHA