Mascot Gregory VanAmerongen, 12, rides a bike in his Aviator uniform on the track during a football game. VanAmerongen was very respected by his peers for his talented mascot performances. "He has been an awesome mascot!" said Amy Smith, 10.

Soaring 50 years from the past, the spirit still lives on! Fans through the years cheered on the fighting Aviators as they defeated their opponents. Fans from 1966 cheer on their football team with a little different style than those of this year.

ANCE	HISTORY CLASS 	N.H.S. Sycamore's National Honor Society was created shortly after the school was built in the early 1900's. The Sycamore Chapter held a "Many Smarts Dance" to encourage better academic achievements among the student body. They also awarded scholarships to Seniors.	SYCAMORE COMMUNITY CHEST 	YOTA The Year Of The Author occurred during the year 1988-89. The school district, Student Cultural Secretaries, private industries, and individuals all pledged to support YOTA.	Parking Pass  Free

ODD COUPLE DANCE CLASS In 1940, the Sycamore High School Dance Class was started. Classes met after school every Thursday for only 25 cents a lesson. The waltz, fox trot, conga, rumba, and Lindy Hop were taught in this class.	The Odd Couples' Ball was held in 1988 and was sponsored by SHAPE. Mother, Kaye Griffney, came up with the idea. Mary Lou Hoffer, Jr. High teacher, chaired the first Odd Couples' Ball.
CHANGE
WINTER The first Winter Dance was in 1954, and was called the "Christmas Dance." Miss Elizabeth Mullins, the first girls physical education director at Sycamore High School, was the one who was in charge of the dance.
HOMECOMING January 18, 1952, was the first Homecoming dance after a basketball game at the Sharonville gym. The dance, however, was held in the Sycamore Auditorium. The first king and queen were Ronnie Fusser and Wanda Reed.
