

The crowd of students takes a break for a slow dance. The music was varied with mainly fast paced beats the entire night. Most of the students preferred the faster songs to the slow ones.

GUY VS. GIRL PREPARATIONS

Elliot Donovan, 12

12 P.M.- Wake up and eat breakfast.
1 P.M.- Start playing video games and watching T.V.
7 P.M.- Pick up corsage.
7:30 P.M.- Get ready
8 P.M.- Go to dinner at Chipotle.
9 P.M.- Leave for the Dance.

Joanna Chang, 12

9 A.M.- Wake up and shower.
10:30 A.M.- Get manicure and pedicure.
12 P.M.- Grab lunch at Panera
1 P.M.- Salon to get hair done.
2:30 P.M.- Get make-up done at the mall.
4 P.M.- Pick up boutonniere.
5 P.M.- Start getting ready.
5:45 P.M.- Take pictures.
7 P.M.- Dinner at P.F. Changs
9 P.M.- Arrive at the Dance.

Growing Anticipations

"This year was a lot more fun because I went with a group not just one date."

-Lisa Wu, 10

"It was more relaxed because I knew what to expect."

-Jonathan Bregger, 11

"It was exciting because I didn't know what to expect."

-Rahshod Davis, 9

What did you say?

"I didn't end up going, but after hearing how fun it was I wish I would have gone."

-Kendall O'Keefe, 11

"The music was better this year. I like when they played Sandstorm."

-Zachary Star, 12

"I had a group of 20 people for Homecoming! It was chaos but a lot of fun!"

-Lori Adler, 12