

One note above all else

Triumphs of musical talent

By: Kelsey Fairhurst

The marching band faced steep competition, culminating in the annual Regional Championship Competition. The band, led under direction of Mr. Danny Frank, performed their show Vertigo in the pouring rain and cold.

"It was a bigger adrenaline rush than anything else, and it was a big surprise," said Evan Lind, 10.

Not only did the band dominate at Regionals, they took their biannual trip to Walt Disney World and performed in a parade throughout the park.

"Band this year was awesome. We worked really hard and had some fun times. Disney World was a blast too. I can't believe I only have one more year left of band!" said Joshua Sharp, 11.

With all eyes on the tuba section, the students give a knock-out performance. Clearly, these performers had to have their muscles in check to successfully hold their strong stance.

"Band is great because you can meet a bunch of new people."

-Joshua Sharp, 11

"I feel like I don't even have a family once band starts."

-Kathleen LeBlond, 12

"The first time the crowd saw the wheel, their reaction was extremely positive."

-Mr. David Swift

"I love band. That's all I have to say."

-Charlie Manion, 10

The talented trumpet players work hard at half-time. The crowd was yipping and hollering as the musicians kept the spirit going. A marching band could not be complete without these talented musicians.
