

dressed & ready

Once again, seniors enjoyed the tradition of dressing up for Halloween. Various groups recieved awards for different categories; winners took home gift cards. Even Officer Paul Payne dressed up, and everyone received lots of candy to take home!

BEST DRESSED

Charis Jobe, 12, featuring her takeout box costume for senior Halloween. The costume took her a week to make. Jobe said, "Definitely seeing friends in costumes was very enjoyable and fun."

The "Vectors" and the Traffic Conductor groups were two of the winning groups. Winners were chosen for different categories including Best Homemade and Best Couple costume.

