

This winter, Aves Theatre performed The Drowsy Chaperone. Students and parents alike enjoyed the show. Maria Shomo, 12, played the Drowsy Chaperone, who is in charge of keeping a bride and groom apart on their wedding day. With a pair of roller skates, two gangsters disguised as pastry chefs, and even a special cameo from the superintendent, this wacky and wonderful show was a hit!

winter
wonder