What motivated you into joining?

I was motivated by my family, and since I'm in a family of athletes there was no point in for me not to play.

Is there anything you have improved on, or want too?

I think I've improved on my mental toughness and I've gotten stronger and learned a lot. Not just about basketball, but life too.

Who inspired you into joining the team?

My mom inspired me to join the basketball team because she played basketball in college and was a very talented athlete.

Is there anything you would like to tell any aspiring players?

I would tell them to keep working to improve their game regardless of how killed they are, but to make sure they are enjoying the sport along the way.
