

From pep rallies to basketball games, the signature fresh beats and sharp moves from the Flyerettes are a Sycamore staple. This year, some junior high students also had the opportunity to dance with the Flyerettes, opening the floor to the next generation of Sycamore dancers. A cool experience for all, the combination of hip-hop dancing and new bonds between the high schoolers and younger students allowed for some amazing memories to be made.

