

seriously in love

For their last major performance of the year, Aves Theatre put on Legally Blonde: The Musical. The stellar cast had four amazing performances showcasing the life of fashionista Elle Woods and her journey to becoming a lawyer.

Sophomore Brock Giesen-schlag played Elle Woods' ex boyfriend, Warner. And it wasn't an easy role to take on. "[Warner 's] kind of a mean character...I had to learn to act like that, and it's not just in the words and facial expressions cause you also have to think about how a person like that stands," Giesen-schlag said.

For Adam Weatherston, 10, he really enjoyed being a part of the show. His favorite part of the rehearsal process was learning all of the different choreography.

welcome to...