

win the day

A member of the softball team shares how she would describe the sport to someone who knows nothing about it.

“I would describe it as a sport that anyone can be great at, as long as they put in the effort because there’s always a community of girls cheering for you every step of the way.”

JOSEPHINE ZINK, 11

