

“When we played Springboro, they were a really good team, and even though we were supposed to lose by a lot, we made it a really close game and almost pulled out the win. It was cool to be a part of the team when we were all working together towards a goal.”

AYDEN BOLT, 10

