I can't believe how quickly these four years have gone by! You have shown us all how brave, smart, and hard-working you are. You have overcome obstacles and shined on stage, shined academically, and shined as a friend. You will continue to light up this world just as you have always been the bright spot in our family. PROUD is not a big enough word for how we feel. Congratulations on a stellar high school career! You are truly amazing.

Love, Mom & Dad, Jack, and Claire
