

Ty Simmons

Ty, my G-Baby,
I can't believe you are finishing high school and ready to start college. You are ready! Your parents have equipped you with everything you need to navigate life at the next level. Know that I am always here for you, any time of the day or night. I believe in you and am already so proud of you!
Always remember that there is only one Ty Alonzo Simmons. You are authentic, intelligent, resourceful, and prepared to walk with God through an amazing life! I'll be right here cheering you on!
Love you, Aunt Mel

SOFIA AVEYARD

Sofia – You are a kind, bright, talented, beautiful goofball who brings joy to so many! Your compassionate heart is as big as your smile; you see the good in others and forgive generously. Brave and determined, you were tackling dental visits, haircuts, and the tallest jungle gyms independently at the age of three! So, we know you'll succeed at what whatever you set your mind to! (And we'll be behind you...cheering loudly and loving you unconditionally.)
Congratulations!!!

Love, Mom & Dad
