How did you get into playing lacrosse?

Elaine Barker, 9: "I got into playing lacrosse from my dad. He played in high school with his brothers."

Ava Giesenschlag, 9: "My mom signed me up for lacrosse in first grade just to try something new and I never left."

Kamryn Francosky, 10: "I started playing lacrosse in third grade when CHCA was starting up their first lacrosse team and needed players."

Ellie Johnson, 9

Who is someone that you admire on the team (varsity or jv) and why?

Andi Bell, 9: "I admire Lainey Simons because she's always been very supportive. She is the one that helps me when I need it, and tells me that I've got it when I make a mistake. She always cheers me on when I do something well. I love playing with her because she is a great teammate and leader."

Anna Niehaus, 10: "As a defender, I admire our goalie Aoife. She is a strong leader and a hard worker, on and off the field."

Kenna Bolt, 10: "One piece of advice that I have received from my coaches and teammates is to always put 100% effort into everything on and off the field... {you} will improve constantly in all aspects of life!"

Tess Geiger, 10: "I am a midfielder and my favorite part is the fast pace of it because I love to sprint. I also like to take the draw, it's high energy and aggressive."
