

If variety is indeed the "spice of life," then the student body at SHS was a delightful potpourri. From Abbe to Zuckerman, 1988 included everyone from artists to zoologists. Sycamore High School offered academics for the mind, athletics for the body, and service organizations for the soul.

We Have The Variety

6

7

8

9

10

11