

Odd Couple Dance

Daughters invited dads, and sons escorted mothers to the commons on March 12. A magician entertained the guests as they arrived, with dinner following at 8:30; the dancing was well under way by 9:30. Thanks to the generosity of many neighboring businesses, every student in attendance left with a doorprize, not to mention an evening of memories their parents could share first hand.

1. Jane Hines takes a turn at the mike. 2. Megan Monteith heads for the dance floor. 3. Moms and sons, and dads and daughters dance to the slow tune. 4. Chicken dinner precedes an evening of dancing. 5. Kaydi Muldoon arrives with her date.
