

Game & Parade

Thursday night's parade and bonfire got everyone psyched for the following night's game. Friday's festivities were picture perfect. The announcement of the 1986 Homecoming court along with the well practiced performances made the half time ceremony terrific. The perfect night ended with the aviators sweeping a victory over Anderson.

