

The Diary Of Anne Frank

On the nights of October 30th, 31st and November 1st, Sycamore opened its theatrical season with the historical drama, The Diary of Anne Frank. The play was based on the actual diary accounts of Anne Frank, a jewish teenage girl who hid from the Nazis with her family during WWII. The cast — led by junior Heather McKinnon in the title role, as, well as Mike Cassidy, Jodi Withers, Rusty Rouse, Lori Bley, Darren Sudman, Chrystal Smith, Melenne Rasmussen, Chris Uhlhorn, and Steve Gluck — did an excellent job in bringing the characters and situation to life, drawing both laughter and tears from the audience.
