

Christmas Dance

This year's Holiday Dance brightened everyone's holiday spirits as couples found a true winter dreamland. The Junior Class along with the help of others did an outstanding job in making this year's dance one of the best. The night was filled with laughter as couples posed for pictures, and danced the night away. The long hours of preparation were well worth it for all who were there.

