

Choir Concert

The Sycamore Choir group presented a delightful program this winter. The performances were well received by the audience. This talented group of students has always been rewarded with packed audiences, which is not surprising if you have attended one of their exciting performances.

