

Fiddler On The Roof

In the dreary winter days of March, Sycamore High's presentation of the musical Fiddler on the Roof provided a rousing celebration "To Life". Blending elements of song, dance, broad comedy and gripping drama, the show told the moving story of Anatevka, and impoverished Peasant town in czarist Russia, where "Tradition" rules the lives of everyone. Kevin Crapsey, as the lead character Tevye, gave a heartwarming and memorable performance, as did the rest of the cast — which included Jodi Withers, Lissa Hern, Tracey Hicks, Rusty Rousse, Laura Chenault, and Matt Farnsworth. The large chorus, orchestra, and backstage crew also contributed significantly in making the musical a "Miracle of Miracles" for the Sycamore stage.
