

Fine Arts Festival

The Fine Arts Festival is the event in which Sycamore students from all grade levels get to show off their many artistic and musical abilities. The weekend consisted of a gym packed with many fine works of art and a stage of talented performers watched by parents and students indulging themselves in pancakes.

