

Winter Dance

Girls got their chance to "Wine and Dine" their male counterparts this December. The annual Sycamore Holiday Celebration was held in the commons. Enchanted couples were greeted in a warm drawing room complete with hearth and chaise. Music was provided by a DJ who entertained the enthusiastic dancers. The night proved exciting for all and most left satisfied that the 1985 Holiday Celebration was a total success.

