

For Sycamore High School, this year's Touring Company provided a continuation of an enjoyable and rewarding tradition of vocal excellence. With its many concerts and performances, the Touring Company delighted audiences, and through numerous contests, the many talented vocalists in the Touring Company gained recognition for their work and commitment.