

STEPPING ONTO cold pavement. Kristopher Korte, 9, recieved door to door service every morning: picked up by his house and dropped off right in front on the ramp entrance. Check out page 60 to see more on the big cheese!

"E PLURIBUS UNUM" IS ONE OF THE most well known Latin phrases, that has come to mean "in God we trust." Charlotte Chamans, 11, and Amit Chandra, 11, knew better as the real translation of the phrase is: from many, one. They practiced their Latin skills. Although Latin is an unspoken language, its complexity and historical value intruige these two students. For more of Global Language department, see pages 68-69!
