

Mrs. Karen Bare, history teacher, teaches her class the latest happenings in U.S. government. For her AP students Mrs. Bare offered after school sessions to help them study for the test during second semester. She also teaches the freshman World History.

Victor Clamentar, 12, Christopher Bregger, 12 and Ryan Billan, 12, discuss their answers. The government class topics ranged from everything to the election to congressional restrictions on the executive branch. Seniors seem to enjoy the laid back semester of historical studies.

Dina Dendramis, 12, takes a sip of her water in between taking notes. Seniors had to take U.S. government but were given a choice between AP and academic. Those who choose AP had to take the class during first semester.

"(Mrs. Kasarda) is the nicest and happiest teacher that I know."
- Nina Laybourne, 10

"Mrs. Kasarda is fun, she gives out fun assignments"
- Joe Huston, 10

"History is also fun because you get to learn about stuff in world history and then learn about it more in depth in American History."
- Shane Nuckous, 10
