

Funky new cuts

By: Tamar Ingber

Did you get a haircut? Get highlights? Let a friend dye your hair? Hair has always been a great way to express one's personal style or make a statement.

Nayla Takkedine, 11, cut her long hair for Locks of Love, a nonprofit organization that provides hairpieces to financially disadvantaged children suffering from medical hair loss, to support her friend and former Sycamore student Adrienne Westcott.

"I was just sick of my blonde hair. It wasn't because of Ashlee Simpson. Everyone calls me Ashlee now that I dyed my hair!" said Scott Kelly, 11.

Kristin Vice, 11, went all out including: bleaching her entire head after receiving extensions, and finally dyed the bottom tier of her hair black. Vice loved the new dramatic look, but couldn't wait to change it again.

However, Brittany Gray, 11, had a short wispy look at the beginning of the year, mimicking Halle Berry, but Gray loved change. She later decided on longer braids.

"I just go to Great Clips and get a haircut," said Jeremy Zola, 11. Zola went for a more simplistic deal: just a trip to the barber shop every once in a while.

Others changed their hair to change their look.

"Once you go blonde, you never go back!" said Margo Rosen, 11.

Rosen is a natural brunette but swears she was meant to be blonde.

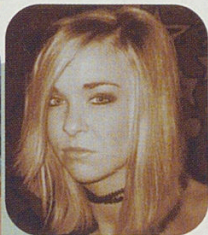

after

Flipped out to long luxurious braids!
Brittani Gray, 11

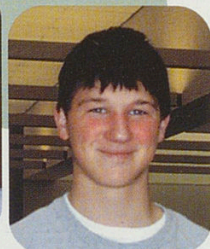

before

Shorter and sweeter!
Kyle Spicer, 11

Blonde to black!
Scott Kelly, 11

Lighter and Darker!
Kristin Vice, 11

Have YOU dramatically changed your hair?

17%

Brian Clark
Richard Clark
Jeffrey Cohen
Jordan Cohen
Samuel Cole
Jonathon Coleman
Lisa Collins

Matthew Collins
Amanda Cone
Douglas Coughlin
Kevin Crook
Ryan Cummins
Bethany Cundiff
Danielle Daniels

Deacea Daniels
Katherine Daniels
Lauren Daniels
Ryan Darbonne
Kionna Davenport
Gregory Davidson II
Kristopher Davis