

The faces of students that attend the game are priceless. After a great play everyone went crazy! Just because it was winter break did not mean the games were on hold.

What did you do during Winter Break

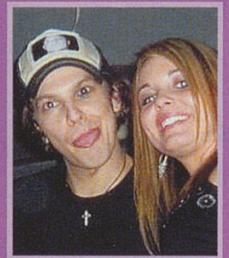

“Ice skating is the perfect thing to do during winter break. Even though I did not stay on my feet all the time, I still had a blast trying to!”
-Shelli Coppoolse, 11

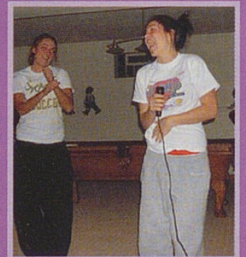

Be cautious not to fall! Caroline Dunn, 11, Annie Broadus, 11, Whitney McKee, 11, Molly Essell, 11, and Emily Beech, 11, all enjoyed a day of skating and playing. The girls got together to celebrate Essell's birthday. They held hands and skated together to help each other from falling.

“I had an amazing winter break. I went to a Gavin DeGraw concert in Philly and got to hang out with him after and then again in New York City. It was definitely an experience I will never forget.”
-Brittany Doris, 12

“The slumber party was a good team bonding experience. I also got to work on my singing and dancing skills.”
-Nina Budde, 11

“Winter break was an awesome time. I did different things including karaoke. It was a fun time.”
-Nicholas Mastruserio, 12
