The 2006 yearbook, volume 63 of The Log, would not have been possible without the help of its devoted staff in Room 115 and publishing company, Herff Jones Publishing Company. Our Herff Jones representative and customer service adviser, Ben Krenwinkel and Carolyn Parker respectively, proved to be very helpful, as was our professional photographer, Jeremy McDaniel. He took most of the sports and action shots while staff members and other student photographers took the rest. We finally put the book to bed on June 15, 2006. It was printed in Baskerton for its body copy and a variety of others for headlines and extras. The Student Life section was done with Avant Guard and Averon. Academics used Forte, Clubs used Eight Track. The extensive Sports section utilized Bachelor Pad JL. The People section used Nuts and Avant Guard, and lastly, the timelines at the beginning and end of the book were done with Casual. Using 80 pound paper, pages were designed using Adobe Pagemaker 7.0 and Adobe Photoshop 7.0 on 24 Dell computers, 2 scanners and 1 laser printer. There were 1000 books printed, at a cost of $60. With a theme of "In," the yearbook was all about the inner strength and diversity found inside of our school. Through a year of massive budget cuts, students and staff proved they have the intense drive to succeed, and overcome obstacles. The individuals that compose the school make it what it is inside.
