

The boys huddle up to get the latest stat in the game. The coaches lead the way with the plays and the boys follow through. Everyone is ready to see how hard the guys are ready to play.

Game face boys it is time to play

By Katie Hooper

PUCKS SOARING, BODIES CHECKED AND STICKS SLAMMING, SOUNDS LIKE IT IS HOCKEY TIME!

The boys had a tough season, but put up a good fight against the competing teams. They involved themselves in many tournaments including the Frozen Creek in Kettering and the Moeller Christmas at the Cincinnati Gardens. The student exchange program has involved itself with the hockey team. The season was helped with the exchange student, Alex Mijuskovic, 12. Mijuskovic played a tough season with some goals to spare. Mijuskovic was a pleasant gift to America and Sycamore.

Starting the season out right, with the upper chessman, Brandon Luken, 12, and Randy Miller, 12, became very close in the season, being the strongest seniors on the ice. Although, the season was not as successful as planned, the boys pulled out many wins against hard teams. Only a lower chessmen, Jeffrey Ellingham, 10, had an impressive season with many assists. The most aggressive and hard hitting player on the ice, Will Sanders, 11, surprised the crowd with some checks to remember. The boys played hard and tough through the season and it paid off in the end.

1. The most aggressive guy on the ice, Will Sanders, 11, checks the opponents hard into the glass. Leading the way on score board, Sanders, shows his right to be on the power play. 2. Ready for the win, Randy Miller, 12, skates down the ice for a goal. Always playing aggressive he has many goals for the team. 3. Skating hard, Jeffrey Ellingham, 10, played out the game being one of the youngest on the team. Ellingham is on the power play and is a very big contributor to the wins.

1. Ready for the face off, Paul Morris, 11, is ready to level out the opponent. Playing center is not his usual position, but he plays hard wherever he's placed. Morris, the "silent giant" plays hard for the ladies. 2. Skating hard, Brandon Luken, 12, and Randy Miller, 12, play tough together making the score. These boys play an awesome season providing many wins for the team. Moeller is always a tough game, and gives the boys a run for their money.

4. Setting up the face off, Andrew Yee, 11, and Randy Miller, 12, slam the puck in their possession for the chance to score. The boys get a chance to play hockey with different guys while the line changes kept coming.
